DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to all our friends out there that are doing their part in cleaning up the mess we have on Earth. Thank you for helping us and guiding us..

Off-World Influencers is a comprehensive collection of visuals depicting Extraterrestrial races. This book is aimed for those who are curious about our Extra-Terrestrial connections and the Influence it has on us. Off-World Influencers depicts over 70 E.T races/species in high-quality 3D renderings along with descriptions. These profiles are based on real intel and I strive to portray the E.Ts as authentic as possible.

ABOUT THE BOOK

OFF-WORLD INFLUENCERS IS AN E.T.-ENCYCLOPEDIA AND A VISUAL INTRODUCTION TO MORE THAN 70 EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL SPECIES ANALYZING THEIR APPEARANCE, TRAITS, ALLIANCES, AND AGENDAS. CREATED BY WWW.ETSPECIES.COM (HAAKON BUNAES)

I believe it is our birthright as a human being of Earth to have access to information explaining the current situation. I urge you to keep an open mind so that you may process this information rationally without letting your preprogrammed mindset interfere. Listen to your inner voice; let it be your truth meter. This information should be carefully processed before disseminating. I urge all of you to research the things in this book you may question. This book contains earth-shattering information and may cause reality distortions. Use your discernment, and if these words do not resonate with you, please close this book now.

DISCLAIMER: New information and intel are constantly coming in, which may result in contradicting information, errors, or gaps in the picture I am about to paint. I will, however, go with my current understanding of the ongoing E.T presence in our solar system. This is only my perception as of now, June 2022. In no way do I claim to know all the facts, and I certainly understand that people subscribe to different types of narratives and worldview beliefs, depending on what is of resonance with you. My approach is to take in the information available, regardless of sources and the intel method - and cross-check it with other sources. I have done much research and know that verifying everything scientifically might not be possible. Still, the goal is to create fascination and pique your curiosity. The greatest mystery of all is life, and I try to piece together a hypothetical picture of how and why we got to this point. But most of all, my main focus is to create the most authentic representation of genuine Extra-Terrestrials (hereby referred to as E.Ts) and explain how they relate to us and each other.

Most of the information presented derives from photo/video evidence, leaked unofficial and official documents, whistleblowers' testimonies, witness descriptions, interviews and talks with experiencers/contactees, and self-claimed hybrids. I also follow channelers, tarot readers, clairvoyants, and remote viewers. I also have had personal channeling sessions with «The Arcturian Collective» through Douwe Beerda; I must also mention my primary source of inspiration, Elena Danaan's book, Alien races- "A gift from the stars."You may wonder how it's possible to know their names. Mostly it's a name we provide based on the origins of the races. Other times it's names we have called them in earlier days because it's simply descriptive. On occasion, they have provided their names to us. But most often, it's related to their origins or habitat.

I will briefly explain the history behind the ET- scenario, which we have been dealing with for some time now, and get an overview of the agendas, time scope, and diversity of interactions. I will attempt to explain the exopolitical landscape so that people can make sense of the world today.

AUTHORS NOTE

If you are reading this, I assume you are already onboard and curious about the ongoing visitation by E.Ts on planet Earth. This book is not intended for those still seeking proof of extraterrestrial life.

I am happy to bring you something I feel has been missing for a long time. A visual library of over 70 known races relevant to our Solar System and their part in the whole E.T-scenario. Who are they?

In 2020, during the so-called Covid pandemic, I decided to embrace a massive project of teaching myself Blender 3D to create 3D models of allegedly real E.Ts and render them into stunning graphics that I could present in this book. I wrote descriptions and explanations of how they work together and the various agendas. Altogether I have spent over 2000 hours creating this project. This is a service to my fellow humans because we need this information out there. Special thanks to Elena Danaan for the inspiration I got from the book: Alien Races- A gift from the stars. I love you all.

I am forced to say:

INTRODUCTION

There are reasons for this information being kept from the public. However, a lot of the following content is known within the upper layers of the military, royal circles, political elite, industrial leaders, and religious institutions. There has come to be a consensus of some sort to keep us in the dark about the E.T presence. The reason why is very complicated and will be addressed later. I will first provide some insight into the ongoing situation.

We as humans have an urge to know if E.Ts can be trusted or distrusted by us. It's the minority complex we the humans suffer from, always assuming that anything unknown is superior to us. The UFO and E.T. phenomenon is a very complex matter. It's not a question of whether it is true or not. The evidence speaks for itself. We have videos, pictures, and testimonies from high officials and whistleblowers. Full disclosure of the UFO and E.T phenomenon will NOT happen via governmental sources because the technology associated with the UFOs is a goldmine for the military-industrial complex.

For more than 70 years ago, there has been a growing presence of UFOs on planet Earth. The most important question is, who are piloting these crafts, and what do they want? Many races have been watching us closely for a long time, some for millions of years. Most visitors have a positive agenda, and they are far more spiritually and technologically advanced than us. The human-looking «Nordics» have been of great assistance to humanity. They have more than once stepped in to avoid nuclear war by disarming the warheads and messing with the computers. There are also a few negative E.T. races visiting us. Some of them have allied themselves with humans in key influential positions and offered them certain advantages in technology, access to other planets, and influential positions within the inner circles of the elite.

All in exchange for them to enforce a certain agenda on earth with total obedience. These corrupt sell-outs are referred to as «The Cabal.» They have created several Secret Space Programs (SSP) to utilize E.T.-technology and covertly go way off-planet using stargates, dimensional travel, and anti-gravity technology. This is being kept secret because these programs have been funded by highly illegal activities, tax money, and private corporations. In exchange, they would allow these nefarious E.Ts to abduct humans for experiments. They are harvesting negative energy, human trafficking, interplanetary slave labor, and food.

FOREWORDS

Thousands of UFO cases suggest there have been abductions going on until recently. There are many reasons why these abductions occur, but it's now evident that some genetic programs are going on. They have been allowed by our leaders to take a limited amount of people if they were to bring them back after the abductions. Some are taken and implanted with chips, and most have gone through weird experiences for reasons only the aliens know. They take sperm, eggs, and fetuses, which leads us to believe a hybrid agenda is also taking place. Even though their memories are most often wiped clean from an incident, some have been able to retrieve memories using hypnotic regression. Most of the activities have slowed down considerably. Our Solar system is currently placed in lockdown as much cleaning of negative forces is taking place. But there are other E.T races, such as the human-looking «Nordics,» that have been of great help to humanity.

In the 1940s, the US military founded a particular investigation group called MJ12, which led to many convert programs without congressional oversight. But the public demanded more openness on the subject, so the USA started Project Bluebook to stem the public. When the program was shut down, it only went dark and grew into astronomical proportions. As a result, several military-industrial programs saw the light of day. In his farewell speech, President Eisenhower warned us about the military-industrial complex's growing power back in 1959. Eventually, in 1964 I believe, a positive faction of superior intelligence, military, and positive E.Ts emerged and formed a counter initiative called «The Alliance.» This was sorely needed as these privatized factions were increasingly growing their influence. The Alliance formed the highly secretive space program called «Solar Warden,» whose mission was to police our solar system and to fight off hostile and dethrone other Earth-based SSPs (Secret Space Programs) such as the German «Dark Fleet» and «ICC.» This existence was proven by the hacker Gary Mckinnon. He found a document related to "fleet to fleet transfers" on a Solar Warden Wessel., He partially downloaded a high-resolution image of one massive spacecraft in orbit. We will address the topic of SSP later and the small «Greys» that have been very much involved as they act like working bees for a larger agenda or force.

ELMANUK

According to the "Arcturian Collective," this galaxy has seven basic templates of physical carbon-based sentient life. Most races, except those who have come here from outside, are believed to be some hybrid genetic mix of these 7. These archetypes are Humans, Greys, Insectoid, Reptilian (dinosaur, reptoid, etc.), Aquatic, Avian and mammalian. As you may understand, these are templates of the galaxy, not the Earth. Most life is carbon-based and oxygen-breathing creatures, and this may be related to why there are similarities between these E.Ts and our Earthly animals. It's a complicated matter, but at the same time, it's just based on very simplistic fundamental laws of physics, consciousness, and nature. In a channeling session, I once asked the "Arcturian Collective" why many aliens looked like Earth animals. They responded that they were created as a joke, bordering on mockery, leading us to believe we are superior and they look like us and not the other way around. I guess it's typical for humans to think everything revolves around themselves.

But our universe has trillions of stars and is teeming with life.

In our sector of the galaxy, we find the upraised walking Five-star template humanoid, and they come in many shapes and types; however, the human archetype is the most common template in our galaxy. Due to the negative connotation of the word "alien" as an adjective, the term "aliens" has lost its neutrality to a xenophobic sense of distrust, dislike, and distaste. The word "aliens" induces a cold constrictive feeling of alertness or even fear, being next to words such as "alienation" and "alienated."

We should also differentiate between Alien and extraterrestrials. Alien is something that is unknown to us. For example, the Greys are defined as alien, but the humanoid species is only defined as E.Ts. So, what is in ways not linked to us or described as foreign is Alien. E.T means off-world. Some also have this definition: An Extra-terrestrial is not an alien. An alien is an unknown. E.Ts are representatives of light, protectors of life and planets. An E.T is a responsible citizen of the cosmos, not a foreigner adrift among the stars.

There is also intergalactic racism because we consider some E.T species to be more benevolent than others. This is unfortunate, but it's necessary to discuss duality and which E.T species align with our interests. But always know that perspectives determine how we behave and perceive others' behaviors. Duality is what causes the dense reality. When we finally understand that we are all one, we can leave these labels behind.

There are currently over 450 races continuously in orbit around our planet. Why are they not showing themselves? This is due to the norm of not interfering with a developing civilization. It's a common practice the "visitors" have to ensure that the civilization evolves at its own pace. Some of the negatives don't obey these rules, and that causes problems because the positive E.Ts are more likely to follow the prime directive of no interference. Recently there have been allowed some interventions since the negative influence has grown beyond a point where we humans will be able to address the issue ourselves. The energies and the playing fields need to be leveled out. After they believe we are worth saving.

The E.Ts come in many shapes and forms; some look like tiny humans with large eyes and no ears. Some appear physically very similar to us, but some are very different. Many are of the grey type, with small figures, large heads, and huge eyes. Some are reptilian-looking beings, and quite many looks like human beings. Aside from them, insect-like beings, angels, and spirit beings have evolved beyond physicality.

Many of the advanced E.T reside in realms above ours, and to interact physically with us, they need to lower their frequency level. This is hard to grasp because we never learned this in school, and it's not part of our consensus reality. All matter is frequencies, and so is everything else, including consciousness and even laws of physics. The Universe is a frequency band. It's the resonance that will let us be aware of things. So, if a being exists outside your frequency band of perception, one part will have to adjust its frequency to align, and only then will communication be possible. Many E.Ts can get into your head and access everything, like a computer hack. Plotting against them is nearly impossible. Some E.Ts are essential to humans, and I believe that if they were not here shielding us, earth and humans might look much different, perhaps even more draconian structures, chaos, and poverty. Life might be like it was in the Dark Ages.

Most advanced E.Ts are not constrained by the illusion of time, as time is a byproduct of us being in the 3rd density where linear perception is the mechanism of experience. Most do not need anything we have. Instead, they provide incremental information we need to advance to the next stage. These E.Ts are not from a dying planet; they are from highly advanced systems in this galaxy in need of nothing. They can manifest by choice anything they please using various techniques. The need for physical possessions is long gone, and what brings them joy is ensuring there is order in the universe and overseeing their experiments and discoveries. They claim that there is no negativity in the higher densities because low-frequency emotions are incompatible with that reality.

According to brave scientists who have dared to research outside the paradigm of established “academia,” the Homo Sapiens is an entirely different race than the Homo Erectus and the Neandertals.

WHERE DO WE COME FROM?

We have learned from the E.Ts that there have been many cycles of humans on this earth, but the first Homo Sapiens originally came from Lyra. The human form is the template of this galaxy and is a prominent race within our universe. The originals are less fault than us, as we have often tinkered with. Earth human DNA is multidimensional and contains 22 different races of genetic material. (See: Grand Experiment) This is because of ongoing experiments by races that claim sovereignty over us or are doing modifications to help us get on with our true path. Many strands are locked in our DNA sequence, and scientists call them to junk DNA. However, this is likely to be the whole library of our full potential, including powers like healing, telepathy, telekinesis, teleportation, and mind over matter skills. There are 400 000 human civilizations in various stages of development in this galaxy alone. Most of us have heard about the Nordics, the tall blond human-looking E.Ts. Let's clarify one thing. We refer to the basic original humanoid types as Lyran, Altairian, and Centaurian. Altairian and Centaurian were factions that ventured into space long before the Draco invasion. But All human life in this galaxy originated in the Lyran system (Man system K-62) eons ago. Some claim the Elohim seeded the humans to further evolve here from another universe. Anyway, in Lyra (Man system), four human races were initially introduced that were seeded there by another advanced race, the Elohim. We are ancient, and we can only speculate where the very first origin of human life is located. In another univers?

The Noor (Irish-looking giants), the Taal (Mediterranean-looking), the Laan

(Cat/Lion features), and the A-hel (Blondes) are the four original types of humans. Most of the human-looking «Nordics» have been of great help to Earth's humanity. There are, however, some human-looking ETs that are not. But most of them are benevolent and loving in nature.

A nefarious reptilian race from Alpha Draconis invaded the Lyran system long ago, and the humans had to flee to various parts of our galaxy. About 50 million lives were taken by the Ciakahrr empire (Draco) from Thuban in Alpha Draconis. After the Lyran Wars, many of those human refugee colonies were forced to surrender to the "Draconian way," mainly some factions of the Taal. That is why we also hear of people that have been abducted talking about nordic looking humans doing experiments on them. Those Taal that ventured to Altair long before the Lyran war has chosen the service-to-self agenda and aligned with the Draconian and the Orion collective's mentality, more service to self, and hive-minded. These guys are taller, slimmer, have white hair, and wear metallic suits. The Lyrans, and the Centaurian in general, are mostly positive in nature. Physically they are more muscular and taller than earth humans and have a faultless skin light texture. Centaurians are platina blond or white hair and have advanced silver suits. The earth humans are descendants of the Lyran A-hel and Taal group, and we, in a way related.

Defining races is difficult because races and species are not the same. Races can be genetic hybrids of all sorts of species, but species will only refer to the base template of the original lifeform.

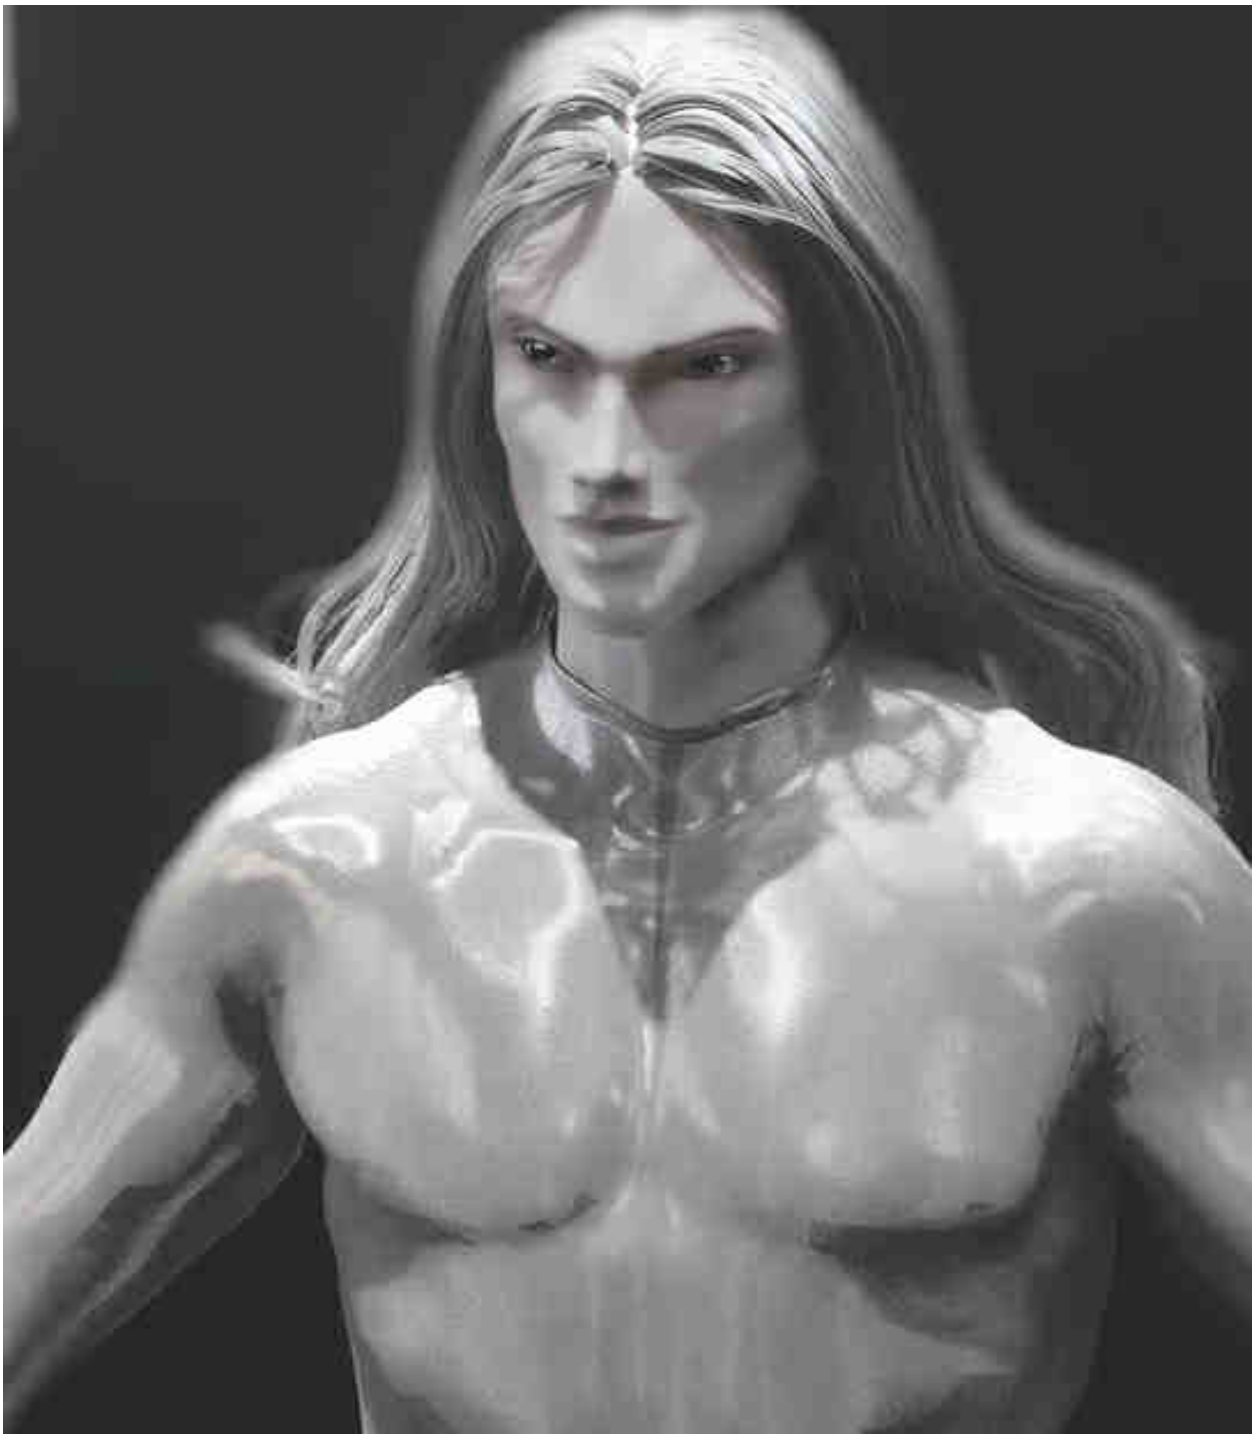
The E.Ts are not constrained by the illusion of time as this is a property of the 3rd density reality. The positive races do not need anything we have. Instead, they provide incremental information we need to advance to the next stage. These E.Ts are not from a dying planet. They are from highly advanced systems in this galaxy in need of nothing.

Some E.Ts are just observing; some are defending their own «territory» as they truly believe they own the earth. Some need to fix their genetics by trading technology with Terran human DNA. And those we deem to be malevolent races; use us as cattle so they can feed on our energy and flesh. But the purest want to teach us about our true galactic history, spirituality, technology, and peace. They claim that we can mature spiritually and join them into higher densities where negative energy is less compatible. This endeavor requires full disclosure, spiritual growth, and awareness- in this window of time.

SOULS REINCARNATED

Great leaders like Jesus, Buddha, and Dalai Lama are examples of highly evolved souls that chose to incarnate here and act as a beacon of light in dark times. We have agreements on a soul level with ourselves that we want this experience to grow further. There are about 150 000 Starseeds incarnated here on Earth because they have chosen to reincarnate in earth's human bodies to experience an extreme range of emotions and to assist us by sharing their insight from past lives. They want to be here for the spiritual and technological revolution happening. This is going to be the most incredible show in the galaxy.

They claim that we can mature spiritually and join them into higher densities where negative energy is less compatible. This endeavor requires full disclosure, spiritual growth, and awareness- in this window of time.



THE BASICS

Our world is under hidden control by an obscure group called “ The Cabal” that answers to an extraterrestrial/interdimensional component. Most governments are fully aware of this, but they will never admit this due to a pact with the E.Ts. The pact would ensure that the E.Ts could freely operate in the shadows. We would provide underground bases and some livestock for genetic harvesting and allow a limited amount of abductions.

In order to control us more easily, we are spiritually held back by the Orions and Dracos. We have highly advanced E.T. science/technology and free energy, all locked up in Unacknowledged Special Access Programs. It’s going to take an act of God to release this technology, claimed Ben Rich, Head of Lockheed Skunkworks. Our secret space programs have existed for 70 years, and we have traveled beyond this star system. They are 300 years ahead of the mainstream in technology.

The modern media is a mass control tool created by the CIA and others in power to control the status quo narrative. (See project mockingbird). CIA has carried out horrific physiological experimentation on humans for a long time to understand how the human brain can be exploited. Rituals, sacrifices, torture, human trafficking, and cannibalism are common in some elite occult circles. All of this is due to the negative E.T. influence.

We live in a holographic frequency matrix which is part of an experiment conducted by several advanced races, and our consciousness manifests in the matrix. Timelines are probable futures based on the current energy flow of our collective consciousness. Reality goes where energy flows. All around us in the so-called empty space is something called «The field» that stores all information and is accessible to everyone all the time through our consciousness.

The Humanoid template was created by a race called the founders (Elohim) in a star system far away called Lyra. Humans now exist throughout the universe. The Earth human race has been genetically tinkered with and consists of 22 different types of DNA. We are multidimensional beings -We exist in many planes of existence. Our academic books on Earth's ancient history are mostly wrong. Humans were here long before recorded history.

There has been a long-waged war of the human consciousness raging between The Cabal/negative E.Ts and The Earth Alliance/Positive ETs - without us even knowing about it. We have been covertly invaded by the Ciakahrr Empire (Post Atlantis era), the Anunnaki in the Egyptian times, and recently by the Orion Group (NEBU) 1940s. Due to their intelligent covert invasion tactics, they have managed to lure themselves into strategic positions of power using mind control, extortion, and masterful chess moves.

Timelines are probable future based on the current energy flow of our collective consciousness. All around us in the so-called empty space is something called «The field» that stores all information. We all have access to this field, but we are deliberately kept ignorant of this connection with the use of technology and mind control. We are all the same. We are all one. We are connected through our pineal gland. Our consciousness comes from the source.

This solar system is entering a part of the galaxy where the energy signature is different, which may result in humans raising our consciousness. This will help get rid of the negative influencers.

Some positive higher forces and federations oversee our solar system and this planet. They cannot officially interfere with an evolving race but can act as guides to individuals. The negatives do not obey these rules. The war over Earth is in its final stages, and with help from positive federations, we will be free from the invisible chains. We are getting a great deal of support from other beings to cleanse this earth of all negative influences.

So, what do the ETs want? As elaborated on earlier, there are so many races visiting us. And many of them work together for a common cause. But many have selfish agendas that we should watch out for.

But let’s approach this question in a very general manner; Positive E.T agendas include a hybrid program, the assistance in raising consciousness to the 5th density level, the removal of the hive-like mind-controlled society we have become, and mentally freeing us from off-world negative influence, subverted slavery, and the AI grid. The ultimate overall mission is to free us from the control mechanism and push us up the evolutionary ladder.

We can do this by deprogramming our minds and then stepping into our own power. Stop obeying orders from authorities that want us to do things that do not resonate within ourselves. We should have learned by now that the centralized capabilities are deeply compromised and are not representing us well. Some E.Ts are just observing; some defend their own «territory» as they truly believe they own the earth. Some need to fix their genetics by trading technology with Terran human DNA. And those we deem to be malevolent races; use us as cattle so they can feed off our energy and flesh. But the purest want to teach us about our true galactic history, spirituality, technology, and peace.

Like on Earth, the E.T has engaged in initiatives to create alliances among species of similar interests and agendas. Sometimes the various negatives form some standoff agreement due to their equal level of power and influence. There are some dark aspects to some of the negative agendas.

Evidence suggests that there has been a massive human slave trade/trafficking program assisted by satanic components and occult mind control happening right under our nose for quite some time. Enslaved people are sold or traded with other negative factions, as a labor force, loosh generator, sexual slavery, or for the genetics stock, which is very valuable to them. These poor souls are missing people of all ages from wars, natural disasters, poor, homeless people who live on the streets, refugees, and other targeted individuals. These people are taken off the planet, and their faith is unknown. I felt sick to my stomach and refused to believe it when exposed to this information.

The positive E.Ts wants to remove these occult/satanic influences and practices and deconstruct an AI grid that is part of the mind control systems. I know; it seems like science fiction. I am not asking you to believe this, but to research yourself.

Why are these paradigm-shaking revelations being kept secret from the public or not discussed in the media? Well, we know by now that the media is “owned” by some authority, and this info is off-limit to the public due to prior agreements with the negative E.Ts. The E.Ts don’t want to be known because that would upset the status quo of human dormancy. And God forbid people would wake up to their true potential and mature to the state we are destined to. These agreements have held us back; we are at least 100 years behind schedule in technology and even more spiritually. We have not even been allowed to know we exist in a universe full of life. We have technology that would fix every problem, but they are all swept under the carpet or locked up in unacknowledged special access programs. Please look up Dr. Steven Greer for more information on this.

Centralized power structures can devastate us if we don’t stand up for ourselves and deny consent. Most of the epicenters of power on Earth, like the Vatican, Downing street, White House, Pentagon, Cern, Big Tech, Pharma, and MSN, are under some influence by these off-world agreements created in our name by some corrupt leaders to get some of the E.Ts leftover technology. That’s how pathetic we are—selling out our race to make better weapons and for more power. It’s a disgrace and extremely provoking! There is so much that needs to be addressed. But these corrupt power structures are currently being taken down by the so-called Earth Alliance and the positive ETs, and significant progress is being made in removing these factions.

POSITIVE E.TS

Their positive E.Ts goal is to assist us into the so-called “Golden age,” which may have some New age connotations. But this is what they claim. Some are very different, and some are humanoid like us. They often operate in groups or federations to join in joint efforts. There are also highly evolved angelic beings that dwell in realms beyond ours. To understand our place in this universe, we must learn from them and their perspective. As stated earlier, my understanding is that there are approximately 450 races that are visiting us at this particular point in time. Most of these races are here to assist us towards a better future to help us in this significant time of transition. To evolve and reach the next spiritual step in evolution, they must ensure our technology will not develop faster than spiritual evolvement. We are their children, and they are constantly watching us, reading our energy fields and with telepathic communication. Some also have boots on the ground that act as observers. These are the positive human-looking E.Ts primarily from the Pleiades, Alpha Centauri, Tau Ceti, and Vega galaxy areas. We have had much help from these beings through subliminal communication, physical interventions, and as guides. Many times, the positive E.Ts have tried to persuade our leaders to abandon nuclear energy in exchange, for unlimited free and clean energy and other wonderous technology that would clean up our environment. Due to the disputes on Earth, our so-called leaders choose the path of destruction. Despite this, the human-looking «Nordics» have greatly assisted humanity in acting as a counterforce to negative influence from malevolent E.Ts factions.

I believe that if the friendlies were not here shielding us, things might look much direr. Life might be like it was in the Dark Ages. The humanoids look very similar but may have other physical attributes that can give them away. E.T humans may come in different skin colors, with more muscular body features, fewer mauls, and freckles. Some have pointed ears; some have slightly more prominent eyes. They are very affectionate towards others and have extensive knowledge because of their spiritual connection to the source (Source =“All that is”). They can easily connect to get intuitive information or “download” when necessary. They are telepathic and master all disciplines of ESP and have a special gift within the strategy. But other types of E.Ts are here also: Greys, Reptilians, aquatic and birdlike beings. Many of these have the five-star figure, one head, two arms, and two legs, with an up-raised posture. There are also hybrids, clones, and synthetic beings. Some of them even claim to be us from a future timeline and warn us that we spiritually must evolve as fast as our technology to avoid the same fate.

There is a hierarchy within the negative forces. It seems that the reptilians from the Alpha Draconian star system are at the top controlling the narrative. They claim to be the first to enter this universe and therefore believe it's theirs to maintain. They use the small Greys as tools to carry out their agenda while mainly operating in the background. The Dracos started to infiltrate and manipulate humanity using entity attachments called Archons. They are etheric micro parasites that are somewhat controlled by a type of sentient AI, that is again of Draco's arsenal. They believe they are the rightful owners of Earth and claim to be the first ones here, so they have been working with their infiltration tactics for thousands of years.

This reality that we live in is based on a duality concept where we are to experience both sides for us to be able to make a conscious choice of whom we want to be. The Negatives are not connected to a source in the same way as the positives and are not creators' beings of love & light. It means they are actually without a soul and have a narrower span of emotions. Their way is more of the hive mentality and egocentric focus. Most are unable or unwilling to grow spiritually; therefore, they do not ascend such as the human races strive for. They cannot raise their frequency (love) enough to "graduate," and therefore, the karmic cycle repeats over and over again. These negative entities are all about control and dominance. These lower astral beings influence our Satanic and dark magic ideas of hell and the devil. Some claim that the Draconian King is "Satan." Going back to the dark ages, they have been here and working as the «puppet masters.» By infiltrating earth's institutions, most of their chess pieces have been moving freely around and reeving havoc on us. They are of low energy vibration, meaning they can only exist where there is negativity and cannot exist in higher vibratory levels of existence (densities).

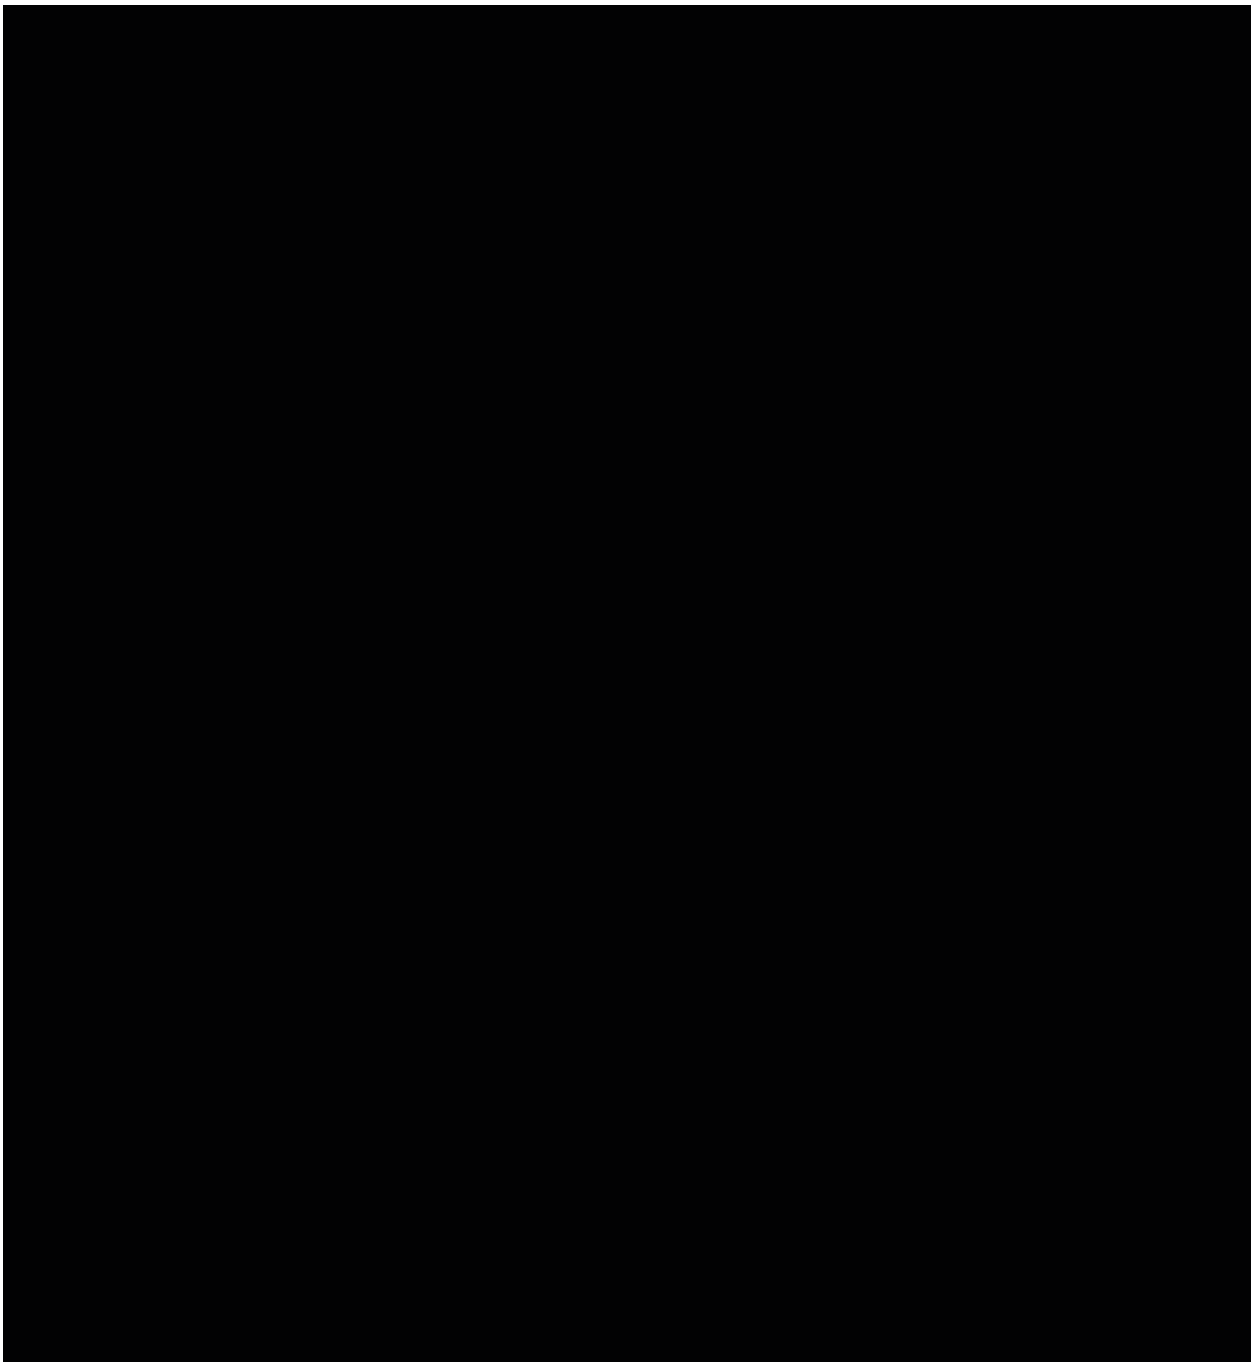
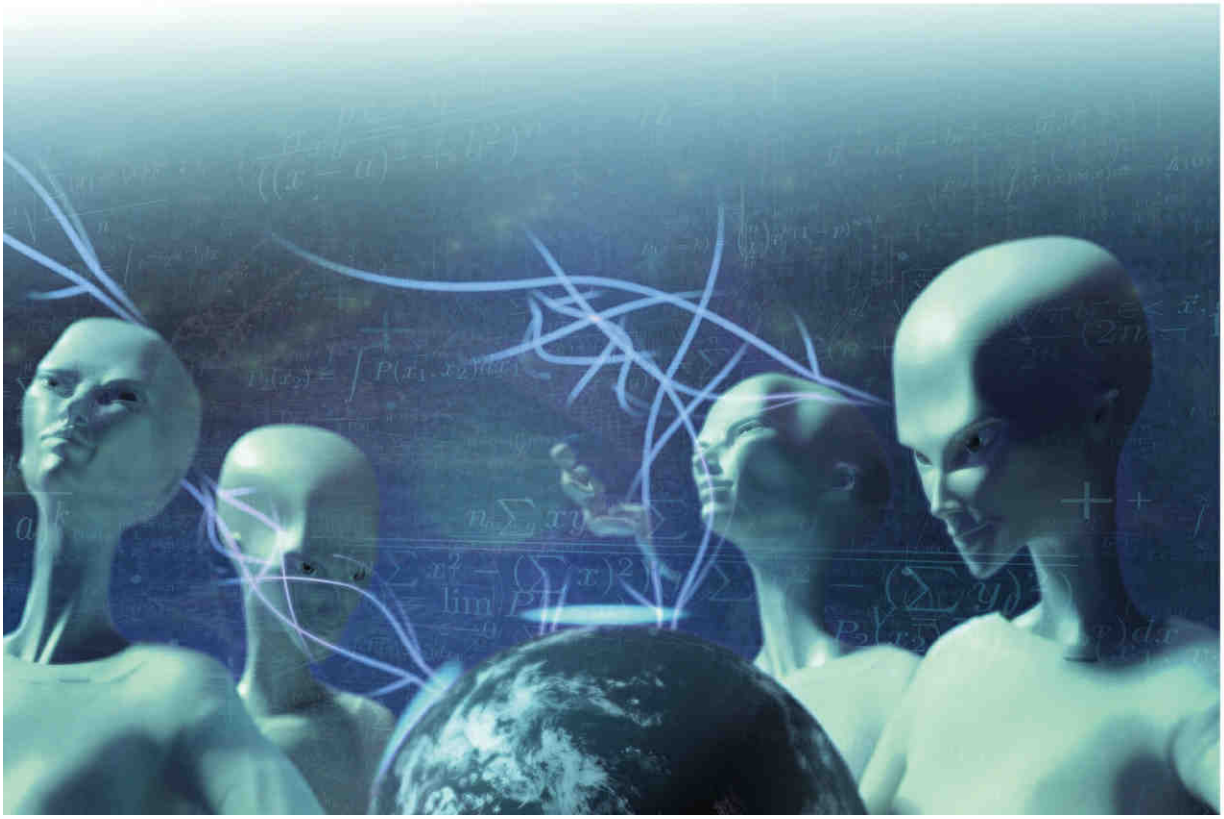
When they are in proximity to humans, they can feed off the fear, anger, sadness, and doubt, all these negative feelings they induce. Most of them have advanced weapons and interstellar travel. I understand that technological integration with consciousness is somewhat more challenging for them to grasp because of their spiritual limitations. And they are by many considered master geneticists and the ultimate warriors. We must understand there is an excellent variety in the types of ETs that do not align with us; it’s not only reptilians and greys. In addition, we must emphasize that we are conditioned by our society and cultured to fear things that look and appear a certain way. Always be aware of the different viewpoints.

Another thing is that they might not consider themselves to do evil deeds because from their perspective it’s just survival. And it’s the same thing we do here on Earth, only towards the animal kingdom. We have a mixed bag of DNA within us.

NEGATIVE E.TS

THE ILLUSION IS BREAKING APART. THE DECITE IS OBVIOUS YET SO DISGUISED. A WAR OF CONSCIOUSNESS. THE ENEMY DO NOT WANT US DEAD. THEY WANT US IN A STATE OF AGONY AND SUFFERING THROUGH EVERLASTING DIVISION, FAMINS AND WARS. WE HAVE BECOME PUPPETS AND OUR OWN PRISONGUARDS. AN INVASION DOES NOT ALWAYS COME IN PHYSICAL FORM. WHO ARE “THEY”? IS THERE A WAY OUT?





THE

We are getting a great deal of help from organized extraterrestrial groups to cleanse this Earth of all negative influence and fight the Orions and the Dracos. The positive E.Ts are members of, or work alongside, the Galactic Federation of Worlds which consists of many different types of beings from all areas of the galaxy. At the beginning of 2021, The Andromedan Council identified a point in the future (in 5th density) where the negatives would take control of the galaxy. They asked the GFOW and the Council of five for help to divert this potentially devastating timeline. The Andromedans are masters of timeline manipulation and they managed to identify the precise point in spacetime for a strong chess move by the positive forces. The point in time is here and now. Our overseers would then be needed to reverse the complex and intricate web of evil about to take over Earth.

THE INTERVENTION

The Galactic Federation would have to remove all negative interference for us to level the playing fields. So they are now removing the oppressors and teaching our military to take care of our own corrupt leaders. As of now, we are in the midst of this transition, and the Orion Group and the Dracos are escorted off this planet! You are witnessing the tipping point in the history of this planet. Also, this consciousness shift we are experiencing now will also influence all the races we have DNA from as we are all symbiotic nonlocally linked. So, if we now manage to pull our “shit” together, it will help the entire galaxy in tipping the scale. Because this is when and where the battle will be fought. And it’s all behind closed doors.

MAIN ALLIANCES & FEDERATIONS

Like on Earth, the E.T has engaged in initiatives to create alliances among the species of similar interests and agendas. Sometimes the various negatives form some sort of standoff agreement due to their equal level of power and influence. This has been the norm for as long as life has existed. Here are the main factions that are involved with Earth.

They are also referred to as the Zentaen Council. It’s a high council of 140 species residing in Andromeda. They are significantly evolved spiritually and technologically; what is notable is how they work in the shadows. They don’t care about glory or spotlight, only the goal. They have saved us using their timeline perception & manipulation technology. They recently investigated the future and identified a point 350 years in the future (in 5d) where the structures of the Orions would take over this galaxy sector and run it by tyrannic means. They used their technology to map out the path that led to this devastation point, whose origin was here on earth at this time!

According to Alex Collier, they presented this to the Galactic Federation and Council of 5. They agreed that measures had to be taken before the dark underground presence on earth got too powerful.

ANDROMEDA COUNCIL

ALLIANCES & FEDERATIONS

COUNCIL OF FIVE

Five races that have been watching earth progress since the dawn of life. They have positive intentions and have had many meetings with human officials. Various types of races. Also known as the Orion Council of light and formerly known as Council of nine. They perform positive abductions to assist humanity in the so-called “envoy” program based on highly developed souls to incarnate on Earth as Starseeds. They are to act as beacons of light and pave the way for love and light. The council’s original purpose was to counteract the Orion influences. The Emerther, the Eragoth, Ginvo, Orela, and Redan are the five races. The Council works closely with the Galactic Federation of Worlds and the Andromedan Council. They have been involved in protecting Terra way before the creation of the Galactic Federation of Worlds, which joined later on as council representatives. They had monitored your species when it was still organisms floating in your oceans. They have witnessed its evolution to primates, the Anunnaki meddling, the different Terran colonization from all parts of the galaxy, the arrival of the evil empires, and the Terran territorial alien wars.

The council of Five, now run by the Egaroth, met Terran leaders on many occasions, trying to influence their decision with wisdom, which has always been quite tricky. The Council of Five does not have a rule of non-intervention, such as the Prime Directive of the GFW, as they consider that sometimes intervention is necessary for helping a species avoid fatal mistakes leading to destructive pathways. They last met on Terra with leaders in 1944, and are planning to meet again, openly this time, in the last ten days of August 2013, to discuss the threat of the Orion and Ciakahrr empires, the Cabal alliances, and the aftermath solutions for a clean and free future for the Terran species. The fact that Egaroth runs it enforces the intentions of unconditional assistance to the Terran species and the work of energy rebalancing of Terra's grid.

GALACTIC FEDERATION OF WORLDS

The Galactic Federation of Worlds was founded over 4.5 million years ago to prevent inter-dimensional dark forces from dominating and exploiting this galaxy (Nataru). Their main goal is to keep balance, justice, and peace in the universe. It is an alliance of thousands of species from this Galaxy. Currently, there are just over 200,000 members, either star nations, confederations, or unions. Approximately 40% are humanoids and the rest are varied forms of sentient beings. Most members of the Galactic Federation are fully conscious beings that are of service to others' polarity. The members are from Alpha Centauri, Sirius, Andromeda, Arcturus, Lyra, Tau Ceti, Pleiades, and many others. On Terra (Earth), they are in the process of helping humans raise our consciousness and awareness of the fact that we have been under the control of the Orions and Dracos for a long time! They encourage us to dare to remove the corrupt leaders we faithfully rely on. Most of them are in liaison with these negative entities. They also help us to deprogram ourselves, remove physical implants from abductees, and do many other tasks. But what we really should thank them for is their willingness to fight for us. For the last couple of years, they have been helping us remove all the hostile Aliens from this solar system and destroy their technology. This is part of the discovery mission that the Andromedan Council had about the future tyranny. The federation took upon them to fight this war for us. They also train our soldiers to defend our planet in the future. They have recently, with help from Andromedan Council and the Council of 5, created an agreement with the world's countries about how the power structure should look like on Earth, and a decision was made about who shall build the advanced tech we will need. $ Musk, Bezos & Branson. The USA was to lead the endeavor. (Read Artemis Acord)

EARTH ALLIANCE

The Earth Alliance is a group of highly influential people from different areas of the world. They act as counterparts to the Cabal. Some factions thought this was a necessary act to cease the growing power of the Cabal. There are about 180 countries represented in this group, and the US Navy Military leads it. Apparently, Donald Trump was brought in as a strong character, and his personality and devotion made him a perfect president to help bring down the old corrupt establishment. There is a Secret Space Program called Solar Warden, which is also a part of The Alliance.

The drip drip disclosure from whistleblowers has gained serious momentum due to the intriguing information about the elite. They're connected with corruption, human trafficking, and their so-called depopulation program; Agenda 21. Large operations are being carried out in the shadows to take down the puppet masters and stop the negative agendas. The Q initiative was a way to counteract the mainstream propaganda machine and create a movement for truth-seekers. The negative forces own the media, so the only way for the Alliance the ongoing leak operations to the people. Behind the scenes, a battle of dark and light is fought. It has been raging for centuries. It is a war of human consciousness fought with esoteric, biological, and mind control weapons. And the prize is us. This multidimensional chess game is still on.

THE EARTH CABAL

A few hostile ET races are visiting us. Some have allied themselves with humans in vital influential positions and offered them unlimited power, technology, and wealth in exchange for occult practices and total obedience. These corrupt sellouts are referred to as «The Cabal.» They initiated agreements with Draco and the Orion Group, which has led down this path of stag-nancy. They themselves have created several Secret Space Programs (SSP) in order to utilize E.T.-technology and covertly go way off-planet using stargates, dimensional travel, and antigravity technology. This is being kept secret because these programs have been funded by highly illegal activities, tax money, and private corporations. In exchange, they would also allow these nefarious reptilians to abduct humans for experimentations, harvesting of negative energy, human trafficking, interplanetary slave labor, and food. They are the puppet masters, and they hide in plain sight. You know who they are.....

ORION GROUP - NEBU

It consists of a mixture of reptilian, greys, and humanoid civilizations. Very much involved in all the negative action and is working closely with the Ciakahrr Empire and the Earth Cabal. The Orion Group is a Satanic force with a predatorial ideology that uses females as enslaved people or breeders while seeking territorial dominion on other plan E.T.s within their warring and killing culture. After they realized they were losing a war in their own system of Orion, they came here. This crew is a force with a predator mind which is mainly responsible for creating much of the negative ego in humanity through Mind Control programming. They have introduced financial and Debt Enslavement to planet earth through the banking cartels.

Additionally, the Tall Whites are blond-looking humans from Orion and Altair that are also predatorial; this species is responsible for spreading racism, genetic discrimination, and genetic experimentation, such as the Nazi ideology, and they are proponents of promoting their belief system of ”genetic superiority” through spiritually abusive methods of Eugenics. This Nordic group from Altair was directly involved with Hitler’s Germany and World War II. They use wormholes to travel from here to Orion.

ALLIANCES & FEDERATIONS

This is a consortium of factions working together. They handle the Jumpgates and take responsibility for the horrendous human slave trade. It’s the Dark Fleet (Thule Terrans), Dracos, Orion Grey Collective, and Altairian Collective. They basically own the Antarctica content, and they have enormous bases underneath the ice. In August 1946, Admiral Byrde felt the ferocious power of the Darkfleet when Operation Highjump entered Antarctica the wipe out those damn Nazis once and for all. Task Force 68 included 4,700 men, 13 ships, and multiple aircraft with the primary mission of attempting to take down the Nazi faction. Most of this US fleet was taken out by advanced saucer crafts and other technological means. The operation ended in late February 1947

I must add that the Galactic Federation of Worlds has recently cleaned out the bases in Antarctica, and the main jump gate to Mars has been destroyed.

ANTARCTICA ALLIANCE

ALLIANCES & FEDERATIONS

This fierce Reptilian faction consists of many types of reptilian beings. They were supposedly the first race to map the universe. The Draco race is from Thuban in the Alpha Draconian star system and is the most superior reptilian race. They are a large group known to create havoc wherever they venture. They have conquered over 500 worlds. The Alpha Draconis are mighty and arrogant. They are also intelligent and technologically very advanced. As masters of covert invasion tactics, they always send in less frightening beings (Like the Dows Greys) as probes first and use them to build a relationship with the indigenous species, which again allows the Dracos to sneak in through a backdoor. They play the long game because the average life span extends from 1,800 to 4,100 years (earth years). They are set on galactic domination, feared all over the universe, and considered the ultimate warrior race by many. They have different castes within their system. A warrior caste. They have engineers, and scientists, almost like a hive. And then they have their royalty up at the top, controlling and directing everything. The Draco was dumped using interdimensional portals into the Thuban Star system I Alpha Draconis by another significantly superior race called Tiamtia, which resides in another dimension. Dracos species are capable of shape-shifting and have highly developed Psionic abilities, which allow them to possess or enter bodies through consciousness projection. Therefore, as they form a Phantom Matrix system of Satanic-based AI-infected entities, many Draco entities are confused by people as the devil or believing they are Satan, as an individual figure. The Alpha Draconians call themselves Ciakahrr and are by themselves and others considered the master reptilian race. They view humans as cattle and a resource they can enslave and dominate. They first visited earth 15000 years ago, and they honestly believe they are destined to rule our sector of the galaxy. Many races have been conquered and turned into slaves by the Dracos and become puppets for the reptilian empire. The Reptilian Dracos have genetically intermingled so much that each of the six is a different gender, and they “trend” from male to female. These various “genders” can look like different species. “The master race is white and is called Royale white. Another high-ranking group is the brown or brown-scaled Nagai. They are warrior-cast, smaller, and less muscular than the others. We also have an Iguana-looking shapeshifter called Sigma Draconis and the Epsilon Draconis to name a few. Two massive underground caverns in Antarctica hold huge, highly populated cities of the Draco. We also know that the most extensive Draco base was underground Vatican City, where they could travel almost anywhere because of the advanced tunnel systems that were built underground. The number of Draco in our solar system was until recently comparable to Earth’s visible population of 7 billion people. However, they are being rapidly removed by the Galactic Federation. The Draco Empire have been at war with the Galactic Federation before, and there was no winner. They both agreed to end it after millions lost their lives in the Orion Wars. They work with the Cabal on Earth or let’s say they dictate the cabal.

DARK FLEET

The Dark Fleet is the German Secret Space Program, sometimes referred to as the Fourth Reich (read Jim Marrs). It ´s a breakaway civilization that acts completely outside Earth's jurisdiction. Just before WW2 ended, high-ranked officers went to Antarctica to meet their newfound friends, the Dracos. The Dracos need human assistance to activate an ark they had located under Lake Vostok. Together they formed the Dark fleet as a space fleet that would do the dirty work for the Dracos in other systems and our solar system. The soldiers were human beings from Earth - even though many are born into this program. The Germans had no other choice but to bow to the Alpha Draconians, that had been present on Earth for quite some time. The Dracos acted as advisors and leaders that would provide technology and protection for them. Some believe that it was through the channeling of Maria Orsic that the Nazis were able to get in touch with them, even though other researchers point to the Vril communicating with the Jadaii Anunnaki.

So, the Dark fleet had many people with special abilities kidnapped and kept within the Dark Fleet to serve for 20 years before being returned at the same time they were kidnapped. They use advanced technology that they acquired off-world. The Dark Fleet mainly patrols outside our solar system, but they have had large bases in Antarctica, on the Moon, Mars, and Ceres. They act as liaisons or as extended hands for the Draco Empire. Its primary objectives are to help quash rebellions on Draco-controlled worlds and to help conquer new worlds for the Draco Empire. Using the infiltration tactics, they manage to occupy many key positions of power. Genetics is the currency of the universe, and soul scalping is another valuable and tradeable commodity.

LYRA A-HEL

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: PLANET MAYA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The A-hel is a race of beautiful human-looking E.Ts that are very much related to us. Four human races originated in Lyra and the A-hel inhabited the planet Maia. They are a classic type of the Pleiades that exist in the 4/5th density but can also manifest in the 3rd density. Scandinavian in appearance with blond hair and blue to green eyes and smooth light skin. They tend to be higher in stature, more muscular than Earth humans -and very physically strong. They are spiritually advanced in nature since they have existed way longer than the Earth humans. The A-hel are telepathic and have other super sensory abilities. Technologically they are very advanced, and they master consciousness technology very well. Their appearance is more refined, and the genders are well defined, where females are very feminine and males are very masculine. The eyes are a bit larger, with more space between them. When born, they have a remarkable speed of development. They grow from babies to adolescents, but by approximately 16 (Earth years), the physical changes slow down, keeping them physically young for hundreds of years. The A-hel are primarily vegetarians but occasionally eat some artificial meat. They have no medical challenges because they control their health using their mental powers. The average age of the A-hel is 700 years, but the so-called “Elders” can reach an age of 2000 years, grow 14 feet in height, and grow silvery hair. They are magnificent creative artists, musicians, and dancers. Also, as they have reached spiritual ascension and inner peace, their skin is susceptible to sensual touch. Love-making is, therefore, very natural to them. The A-hel have colonies in other parts of the Galaxy, but mainly in the Pleiades. They are, however, strongly connected to the Terran Humans. LYRA TAAL

FROM: PLANET OMAN KHERA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

DENSITY: 3RD - 6TH

AGENDA: UNKNOWN

The Taal is a very enigmatic human race. They are one of the human root races that were manifested in Lyra a long time ago. They lived on the third planet from the sun called Oman Khera. Since they are closely linked to the A-hel, the blond ones, they are among our closest genetic relatives. While the A-hel has pure blonde features, the Taal looks more diverse. They may be considered more South American or Mediterranean. Initially, they were pacifist in nature and practiced high spirituality. According to Elena Danaan, they live by a stringent code of ethics and to some, they might come across as emotionless, strict, and monotone. They consider the body to be less than the mind, and even an obstacle when reaching higher spiritual levels.

One day an armada of Ciakharr spaceships arrived and wanted to claim resources in Lyra. The inhabitants wanted to know more about the invaders before making demands. This resulted in an aggressive response from the Dracos. They had Royals on Oman Khera, and they managed to arrange a deal with the invaders to ensure the survival of the royal bloodlines. In record time they build several gigantic space-arch for the people escorted to Vega before settling in the Pleiades. Part of the deal was that the royals were accompanied to the Orion area by the Ciakharrs, and this location would make them very receptive to the Orion influence. Eventually, they switched polarity and are now myself-service ice and allied with the Orion groups. Their whereabouts and role are unknown at this point. The Taal has many colonies in Pleiades, Vega, Sirius, and Andromeda.

The original Taal, however, eventually settled on the planet Temer in the Pleiades, where they became neighbors with the A-hel. A few of these Taal were envious of the A-hel and wanted to rule their solar system so they left the Pleiades and found a home planet in Alcyone. They are known as the Taal Shiar and have gone rogue. See Elena Danaan's book: Alien Races- for more information.

FROM: PLANET EGORIA IN THE MAN SYSTEM OF LYRA

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: DIPLOMACY, GENTICS ENGINEERS

LYRA LAAN

The Laans are considered a positive race, and masters of genetics. This civilization displays noble and benevolent characteristics towards others and is respected throughout the cosmic community. The very tall mammalian species Laan have muscular features and are majestic tall humanoid/feline-looking beings. They appear to be a genetic splice of humans and felines. They have a flat nose, large nostrils, and long beautiful golden hair. Also, they have small round ears and they have some sort of fur on their light brown skin. The Laan are tall ranging from 12 to 16 feet in height, and their skin is covered in a light soft fur. Everyone is very different from one another, with colors ranging from blue to gold and anything in between. The colors are equally varied with both their eyes and their hair. Their upper parts resemble more feline while the body is more human even though they have a tail. They originally come from the closest planet to the sun in Lyra, Egoria, but they now reside in the Taygethan star system. They have colonies around the galaxy where they use their skills in genetics to create hybrid races. They were the ones that first encountered the massive Ciakharr Armada and fled their planet. Eventually, some of them settled a colony on Earth 1 million years ago and started doing genetic experiments on indigenous hominids. Once again, the Ciakharr Empire caught up with them, and this resulted in another war that lasted for a long time. The Laani and the Anunnaki were here fighting alongside each other and finally managed to redraw the Dracos (Nagai & Ciakahrr) underground, and the rest of the Draco now left. To this day they continue to advance in technologies and genetic engineering and are they are very much included in the Galactic Federation as they are very important in diplomacy. See Elena Danaans book: Alien Races- for more information.

DENSITY: 3RD - 6 H

DENSITY: 3RD-6TH

The Lyra Noor is from the 5th planet, Tar, in the Man system, Lyra. The Noor race will be considered giants if we compare them to ourselves, and they may be the origin of the red-haired Giant legends. Reddish hair, green eyes, and sensitive skin are due to the composition and radiations of their dwarf star. It’s important to know that we, the Earth humans are below the average height of the human species displayed in the galaxy.

Some of the colony descendants from the Noori in Lyra adapted to the conditions of their new world near Vega and evolved to have orange hair. The records say that the race of Noor also visited Earth and interbred with humans. They were remembered as the giant red-haired legendary people. On a personal note, I would add that they would appear to have the typical Irish/English genetic specification. These are their main colonies: Alkorat in the Taygetha, Pleiades. Terra, our planet. Elhaziel, Lyra. Eldaru, Procyon. Dahl, Beta Centauri. Meton, Proxima Centauri.

They are a member of the Galactic Federation of Worlds. See Elena Danaan's book: Alien Races- for more information.

TAAL SHIAR

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: LYRA, NOW THEY RESIDE IN ALCYONE

DENSITY: 3RD - 4TH

AGENDA: SERVE THE NEBU FROM ORION IN EARTH INFILTRATION

The Taal is a very enigmatic race and very similar to us genetically speaking. They were also manifested in Lyra long ago and lived on the 3rd planet in the Man system called Oman Khera. They are one of the sister races to the Ahel, the blond ones. While the Ahel has pure blonde features, they are more diverse in appearance. Maybe consider more South American. Initially, they were pacifistic in nature and practiced high spirituality. Believe it or not, they are among the most compatible with Earth humans regarding procreation. According to Elena Danaan, they live by a stringent code of ethics; to some, they might appear emotionless. They consider the body less than the mind and even an obstacle when reaching higher spiritual levels.

After the Lyran invasion, the Taal eventually settled on Temer in the Pleiades, and some of these Taal (Now known as the Taal Shiar), wanted to rule their solar system and not share it with the Ahel race that had already escaped Lyra and settled on the most beautiful planet there called Erra. So they found a home planet in Alcyone and are now referred to as the Renegade Taals. They named themselves “Taal Shiar” and their world “Taalihara,” which orbits around the star Alcyone in the Pleiades. They tried to build their own little empire from there, which was impossible regarding the overpowering threat of the Orion and Ciakahrr (Draco) empires. In opposition to their brothers Taygetans, they did not join the Galactic Federation of Worlds but allied themselves with the Ashtar and Altair Collectives and some Orion groups. They are often seen in abduction scenarios as the beautiful humans in the background. They also provided a planet in the Alcyone system with a reptilian presence. Within the human race, there are positive factions and less good factions. They are unfortunately connected to the Cabal on Terra and are a painful disgrace to the Man races that keeps reminding us that none of us are immune to negative influence.

TYPE: HUMANOID

FROM: PLANET ERRA IN TAYGETA - PLEIADES

DENSITY: 3RD - 5TH

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The Pleiadians, Errahil are Taygethans are the Ahel humans from Lyra that found a new home on the planet Erra. This planet is almost as large as Earth, and is one of 10 planets that circle their sun, Taygetha. Erra is home to around 400 000 Pleiadians, and they believe this to be the perfect balance for the health of both their people and the planet. It's important for them that the spirituality and consciousness level evolve at the same pace as the technology. The Pleiadians consider us relatives and have been watching over us here for thousands of years. In earlier new age societies they have been viewed as Demin gods, but this is something they strongly oppose. They have greatly involved the so-called "Grand Experiment" of creating a superhuman race with traits from 22 different races. These traits relate to the 12 strands in our DNA and the fact that we so far only have unlocked 2 strands. Apparently, we have great potential as a race. The Pleiadians exist in the 4th and 5th density but are able to manifest themselves in the 3rd density as well. 4th and 5th density is basically a higher frequency of existence that is partly outside the visual spectrum of our vision. They are in contact with Earth humans on all levels and are assisting disclosure and promoting spiritual growth. They want to influence us so we can influence others. They claim that the answers are within ourselves, and if we were more spiritual, we would discover what we really are eternal, the multidimensional soul being s and that we are all one. They tend to look after us because they know that other service-to-self races are trying to exploit us or covertly manipulate us. To circumvent these actions, they are trying to teach us a way of unlocking our potential and inspire us to raise our frequency and consciousness and transcend to the 4th density. As the negative energies have been taking more foothold on earth, the Pleiadians along with others play a big role in counteracting negative influence on Earth by using their sophisticated war tactics. However, they still must follow the galactic codex of no obvious intervention. Some of these Pleiadians will go to the length and physically fight and do battles against other ET races to protect us. These battles occur in underground bases, in space, and even on other planets in our solar system. Their blue/Turquoise tight suits contain nanotech and anti-penetration-proof properties, as well environmental and density regulation properties. These suits may look simple but are very sophisticated.

Regarding education, the children's abilities and likings are identified at an early age and most of the time this is the path they pursue in education. The Pleiadians are among our best allies and prominent members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds.

OUR BRAINS ARE QUANTUM COMPUTERS THAT INTERACTS WITH OTHER VERSION OF OURSELF IN OTHER TIMELINES/DIMENSIONS ,-IN REALTIME

The Arcturian beings are the guardians and protectors of higher consciousness. They live in a civilization of oneness. There is no ego and no competition on their planet. There is no mental or physical illness. The Arcturians are here to help raise Earth’s vibrational frequency to accommodate us to the 4th and 5th density. They, as a civilization, have once gone through the evolutionary process humanity is at the cusp of going through now. Their technology is based on sacred geometry- which is highly advanced. Everybody knows these wonderful beings as great healers, teachers, and guides.

The Arcturians are of 3 different races, the Ohorai, Noo-Linn & Gladians.

The Ohorai are spiritual teachers and are described as having purple-blueish skin, large almond-shaped eyes, and three fingers. They are very slender and have the ability to move things with their mind using telekinesis, and they communicate telepathically. Because their ethereal bodies do not eat food like humans, they absorb energy through their nervous system. They drink an effervescent elixir nourishing their entire being, and only sleep once a week. Their sleep connects them to higher dimensional realms of consciousness. These Arcturians live 350-400 years and do not die of old age or disease as it was eradicated a long time ago for these entities. Instead, they leave their world once their spiritual contract has been completed. The Arcturian Ohorais don’t need their physical eyes to see. Instead, they see telepathically. They are telekinetic by nature and communicate with their minds. These entities ingest information much faster than human beings. During their evolution, they’ve come to master the “Self.” Love is the ingredient needed to live in 5th density. These entities have since overcome the lower fear-based self. They are masters of their bodies, emotions, and thoughts and create their craft functions with crystal technology of which they are masters. It’s been rumored that they have a star-ship called “Athena” that travels around the earth. We can safely say they are interested in Earth if it´s true that they have bases in almost every country on Earth. These entities can manifest physically but exist in an ethereal state. They have grounds around the earth, on the moon, and in various places in the universe—prominent Galactic Federation of Worlds members.

The eyes of all Andromedans are somewhat more extensive than Earth humans. The lips are thin and colored almost a light pink, while the ears are fitted slightly lower on the side of the head and are somewhat smaller in size. The hands and the feet are delicate in appearance, with long fingers and toes. The men vary in height from 5 feet, 7 inches, to almost 7 feet (1.7 to 2.12 meters). The women range from 5 feet, 4 inches to nearly 6 feet, 4 inches (1.63 to 1.93 meters) high. They usually wear the traditional multicolored Galactic Federation jumpsuits. Andromedan women are noted for their magnetic energies and their quite curvaceous figures. The average lifespan is 2000 years. They are born with memories of their past lives and have nine strands activated in their DNA. We have 2. They are noted in the Galactic Federation for their mastery of all forms of scientific endeavor. According to Alex Collier, The Andromedans are one of the 22 races that have genetic lineage to Earth beings and are our ancestors. The technology on Earth has far surpassed our spirituality and is cause for concern because it usually causes that race to destroy themselves. The currency of the galaxy is not money; it is genetics and consciousness. They consider themselves 10 000 years more advanced than us technologically and 50 000 times more spiritually. We know now that they are highly skillful regarding timeline technology and their ability to read probable outcomes and detect intervention points. Apparently, they use holographic healing to copy nutritional elements from a person`s earlier age onto the ill parts of the present body, which is a highly advanced treatment. The average amount of sleep needed is 2 hours daily. Mostly they speak telepathically, but they can go to the length of speaking verbally in a Spanish/Italian-like language that is more tonal and guttural in its intonation. 62.000 years ago, they visited planet Earth for a period of 62 years. Andromedan ships range from traditional sombrero-shaped scout ships that measure some 50 to 65 feet -15 to 20 meters across to lens-shaped small atmospheric command ships that are a half mile- or 805 meters in length, and their motherships can be up to a massive 800 miles in size. It´s an entire ecosystem inside. There are parks, lakes and enormous fields with plants and animals. Because of this, many crew members have never even been to their homeworlds. The Zenai are great diplomats and critical Galactic Federation of Worlds members.

The Selosians are from planet Selo in Alpha Centauri B which is the closest star system and planetary system to our owm solar system, approximately 4.38 light-years from the Sun. They now also inhabit several planets very similar to Earth in composition. They operate several bases within the Alpha Centauri star system for scientific research and development. The Selosians are a highly intelligent species that speak many languages besides their own, English being one of them. This ancient civilization is one of the most significant in the Universe today. They are not of human origin, but rather an advanced form of humanoids. The Selosians are gracious people whose physical appearance resembles ours but are much taller. They have fair to medium complexions, and primarily blue, brown, or green eyes. The males typically wear tight topwear and long pants of bright colors worn with ankle boots. The females prefer long dresses or tunics worn with colorful footwear. They must be acknowledged for their ability to harvest universe energy/lifeforce using crystal technology. They are among the best at this. They are masters of metaphysics and have developed their own form of space travel that does not require transportation of any kind. They project themselves wherever they need to go, anywhere in the Universe. While they are free to travel wherever they want, they must first obtain the proper documentation to do so. They use crystal-based technology for the healing of any disharmonic in their body. It's some metaphysical healing. They have two types of ships visible in Earth's skies. The first ship is an all-purpose scout. It is disc-bell-shaped, with a large lens-like circular wing attached to its underside. It is about 45 feet (14 meters) in diameter and nearly 30 feet (9.1 meters) in height. The second is a command ship, shaped like a cigar with a slight bulge in its middle, and is approximately 200 feet (over 60 meters) in length.

The Selosians have a significant role in our planet's 'Transition to Enlightenment' and will be working with the advancement of Human space technology. As members of the Galactic Federation of Worlds, they joined the Ummit, the Emerther, and the Errahil in a meeting with President Eisenhower in 1954 to warn about the Orion Group. As we later learned, the Eisenhower administration was not able to stop the infiltration in progress. The MJ12 had already signed a deal with the Orion Group. ANSHAR AGARTHANS

FROM: INNER EARTH

DENSITY: 4TH - 6TH

AGENDA: SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

The Anshar is a 4th density ancient breakaway human civilization that lives inside the Earth in the so-called Agarthan Network. If we were to dig in there and look for them, we would not find anything. They are 4th & 5th density, so they do not exist in our reality, so to speak. The Agarthans are A-hel humans from the future in their original timeline. A long time ago, in Atlantean times, a human group from the Pleiades decided to settle on what is now called Mars, where they would live for many millions of years and would later play a significant role in our local history. Another branch of them settled on Earth and has been here since that time through many cycles of civilization and disaster. So over time, this Pleiadian group moved underground and established the first human underground cities in what would become known as Agartha Network. The Agartha Network is vast, and its capital is called Shamballa, located underneath the Himalayas. A large city called Tellos is located underneath Mnt Shasta in California. The network stretches around the globe, and there are entry points at the poles, but all exits are guarded well. This was verified by Admiral Byrd. They have their own ecosystem with rivers, trees, fields full of food, and lots of animal life. They also have their own crystal technology that simulates sunlight. Inside the gigantic cavern underneath central South America, they have stationed their cigar-shaped, egg-shaped, and saucer-shaped crafts. Their craft, as well as all of their technology, is powered by the mass consciousness of their civilizations, and some say through crystal energy technology. They master time travel very well. There is some light-emitting fungus that provides them with emission light. The Anshar do not practice matrimony. Instead, they have family groups where they raise each other's children.

Another peculiar thing is that they view sexual intercourse as an energetic exchange. The Anshar sustain themselves on plant and fungus life as they have extensive gardens, many acres in size, where all their food is grown. Their population is currently in the millions, but they are very shy to the surface population.

Not much is known about the Metonii. but they are very active with GFOWs work for the earth. Their special skills are keeping diplomacy and peace during transitions periods. They are also one of the Lyran races, the Noor line. Tall and actually one of the most genetically compatible with the Terra humans due to the genetic makeup. They can live up to 1800 years as they are very much focused on their health. Ethics is a very important aspect of their life as much revolves around that very subject instead of laws. The Metonii can speak, but mostly they use telepathic communication. Those from the Centauri

System seem to have extra skills in building engineering. They are to be commended for their construction of extremely large ships. They use sound vibration to levitate objects and that they can do instant interdimensional travels, but its not teleportation. They are however not the most adventurous type. The Metonii are genetically very compatible with the earth human race and can even reproduce with us. If you see a large cloud in the form of a UFO, it could be the Metonii as they cloak their ships which will leave condensation around the invisible object. Again, Elena Danaan is very knowledgeable about this race and I urge you to buy her book.

The Apunians are a tall attractive Nordic race with high perfection in their appearance. Very blonde and tall, 7- 12 feet tall, and very fit. Almost seamless skin with strong gender features. They come from “Alpha Centauri” and sometimes contact people physically and/or holographically through artificially generated, visible space-time connecting energy bubbles shaped like half domes. There are indications that some of the humans from the Centauri systems are genetically created from the humans that were saved and exiled from the reptilians. They are artificially generated environments where we and our physical reality can partly or entirely meet other beings and another physical reality. They consider all species their friends, and they sometimes extend an invitation the meet with certain people on Earth. They have a unique ability with certain types of technology, are considered very respectful and protective, are very positive towards Earth humans, and assist many poor people. Most encounters happen in South America, according to Giorgio Piacenza.

The Telosi is a 4th density subterranean race almost identical to earth humans - when physical. Often people confuse this race with the Anshar Agarthans as they are very similar. They emit a light frequency that creates a shining effect. White hair, and pale glistering skin. Beautiful light grey, to light blue eyes. They are very telepathic and spiritually evolved. There are claims that they are genetically created from the humans that were saved and exiled from the reptilians eons ago. But information points to the Telosi coming from Alpha Century 4, a planet called Selo, and arrived on Earth over 15000 years ago. According to Elena Danaan, they are Extra Terrestrials, but came here and discovered a vast system of caverns below the region of the Gobi desert and surrounding areas thousands of years ago, and have since established a thriving kingdom of 1,5 million people within, one which has been interacting with other-planetary systems up until current times. Vast cavern systems below Tibet allegedly link the Agharta systems of central Asia to “Snakeworld”, a multileveled cavern system under the southwestern slopes of the Himalayas where the “Nagai reptilians” dwell, according to Hindu legend. One very interesting thing about the Telosi is that they are mostly the ones who are responsible for the Crop Circles. They have silver disks or spheres and use sound technology to do this. By creating the advanced formations, they aim to decode the lost science. We also know the Selosi to have special skills in the art of handling and utilizing crystals. An unfortunate thing is that some factions have been taken over by the Grey and Reptilian Collective.

AGENDA: LIBERATION, SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND PROTECTION.

They crossbreed between Greys and humans and are similar to the Mazani, the Yahyel, the Shalanayah, and the Plahyel. They are smaller than humans, max 5 feet, but can move much faster. They have pale skin and larger eyes than humans. Females have white hair, and males are hairless. Both genders have slightly larger eyes than we humans. Now they use time travel to visit us to gather DNA so that they once again can create a new hybrid race that will be able to reproduce. According to them, this will be called the sixth hybrid race. Their planet is near Orion on Essassani (Place of living light) with a population of 230 million. Three AI spheres are orbiting the planet called Eclipse, Epiphany, and Epsilon. This world exists in a parallel dimension, and they claim to inhabit giant ships above the earth. A synchronistic civilization is typical of all advanced races.

No governments are required; they operate by networks on an individual and group basis. Individuals or groups provide a needed service so that no monetary or barter system is necessary; everything is free. Their lifestyle is always ’very spontaneous, very joyful, very ecstatic. They merge energy fields when they want to kiss or make a baby, even though they are quasi-physical, I believe they can experience things like physical sex. According to Bashar, channeled by Darry Anka, The Sassani are from a distant future timeline and are here now because they need to fix their genetics. They paid the price for letting the technological advancement run amok while their spiritual development evolved much slower. Now they have passed the point of no return and basically destroyed their own genetics. This apparently resulted in them becoming a grey-like beings. So, they traveled back in time to abduct people to retrieve vital samples for them to generate a hybrid race from this time period. This way, they believe they can reverse their faith, and in exchange for our willingness to help them, they will help us avoid the same mistake and sometimes take the role of mentors and guides for unraveling life’s puzzles. They have diamonds shaped or circular ships. The Essassani live to be around 300 years. When they die, they die consciously, with their eyes open, prechosen as the right time to move on and expand. There is no body decay; it converts instantaneously back into universal energy.

As stated, they are creating a hybrid race, and this may seem fascinating. But we must remember that this could be the ultimate takeover. I have personally spoken to one well-known human hybrid who used to be part of this hybrid agenda. She jumped ship and decided to tell all. And her view is that the Sassani are devious in their approach. If they were to put a Grey human hybrid race into our world without our consent, it could very well be a trojan horse. This tactic has been used before by the Orion Greys.

POLARITY

The Yahyel is a hybrid E.T race that allegedly descends from one of the Lyran human species. Others claim that they are a Grey hybrid with 20% Grey DNA and 80% human DNA. The lifespan is 5000 earth years, and they are very technologically advanced. They have an intense interest in our species; out of all the supposed aliens that interact with Earth and possess affection for humanity, the Yahyel are probably the foremost in that category, next to the Pleiadians. Some claim the Yahyel live on giant spaceships, and some say they live on a beautiful planet in harmony with all the forms of life on it.

Others claim they are from our future Earth. Obviously, there is some conflicting information here. The Yahyel remind us how to live in harmony with Earth and each other, and they help us remember that we indeed are magnificent and loving beings. In a sense, they are bringing timeless knowledge from outer space that helps us understand how to fully enjoy our living space and our heart's inner space. They're a very graceful race, with every movement smooth and purposeful. They vary in appearance significantly, just like people on Earth with different shades of skin and eye color. ext. Still, the Yahyel's most notable difference from humans in their appearance is their large, vibrant eyes with huge pupils that vary in unique abstract colors. Though they are naturally shorter than humans with smaller ears, thinner lips, and only four toes, but are the most humanlike in physical appearance. Their great love and affection for humans result from their genuine conviction that humans are their ancestors and parents. This is because our DNA was used to create them and is the majority of their hybrid genetic code. In the E.T. lore, the Earth human template is one of the universe's most versatile and adaptive races (which is apparently why aliens love our DNA so much and like to abduct us). The Yahyel have a healthy balanced relationship with their technology. They never allow it to damage their home or the population's well-being. Pregnancy in Yahyel women is the same as in humans, lasting around 7-8 months. In Yahyel society, they eat, sleep, dream, and value life and the present moment together. They rarely engage in the delights life has to offer alone. They have two planets similar to Earth but and they have claimed that their home worlds are pretty close in interstellar travel to Earth. They value harmony, balance, and inner peace as the driving cultural influence behind their civilization. One of their greatest desires is for humanity to remember who they are and the heights of achievement we've risen to in our beyond ancient past. When they finally make open relations with us on Earth, they will share their history, our forgotten history, where we come from, and how we got there. The Yahyel want to be the ones to teach us timeless knowledge about the universe and help guide us in taking our first steps back into the stars. They are very thankful for the help we provide for them and attempt to return the favor by acting as mentors and guides on how to unravel the puzzles of life.

According to Bashar-Channeled by Darryl Anka, they wish to be the first to openly present themselves before all civilizations of Earth and introduce themselves as our galactic cousins. Apparently, they are creating a hybrid race also that is even more human than the Essasani race. If they were to insert a grey human hybrid race into our society without our consent, it could very well be considered violating our free will. Many are afraid it could be a trojan horse because this tactic has been used before by the Orion Greys.

Tau Aramani are gentle beings that offer their guidance in our ascension process. They come from the star system, which orbits Sulafat and Albireo. They are a human race of “The Mediterranean” or “South American” looking, tan-skinned humans. Their lifespan is over 100 earth years. Petite and very similar to Caucasian humans on Terra except for some distinct bone features on their forehead. Also some slight differences in the pointed ears. They have higher physical ‘density’ for their size, slightly broader nose, five ′ 5″ tall on average, and often wear short ‘Roman’ or ‘crew’ style haircuts. They require only 1 to 2 hours of sleep per day. Human language is very guttural, like German or Arabic. The Tau Ceti and the Epsilon Eridani are reported to be in alliance with the Pleiadeans. The latter, in turn, according to contactees, have partnerships with the Vegans, the Ummits, and others. The Cetian alliance with the Pleiadeans and other societies whom the Orion Group has victimized are based on a desire to establish a common defense against their reptilian and Grey nemesis. The Cetians are known for their abilities to design some of the most advanced ships in the Galactic Federation's exploration fleet.

They also have some of the best pilots and navigators in the galaxy. They have some square ships, but their scoutships are diamond-shaped, plasma craft about 200 to 250 feet (61 to 76.2 meters) long. Mother ships are usually the command ships of Galactic Federation exploration fleets. They look like a series of multi-layered blood cells in stacks of 20 to 50 cells and vary from 4 miles to 44 miles (6.44 to 70.84 kilometers) in diameter. 400 000 RACES IN THE FEDERATION

The alive E.T that was captured at the famous Roswell incident was later named EBE1 for “Extraterrestrial Biological Entity,” This is why this race is called EBEN. They now live on Planet Serpo, Zeta Reticuli I system. According to Elena Danaan, they left their original planet, Azrata, also in the Zeta I Reticuli system because of the increasing amount of volcanic activity. Their world was changing its orbit and slowly drifting closer to their sun. This happened due to interference by the close-by passage of a comet.

The Eben is a peaceful culture, with calm and caring people, but rather curious. The typical lifespan of an EBE’s civilization is between 350 and 400 years. The Eben does not belong to the Grey species and does not share genetics with the other Greys of Zeta Reticuli. They are actually a totally different species. Most of the Greys have reptiloid DNA, but this is not the case for the Eben. They are lower in stature than the Solipsi Ra species, 1,30 meters at the most. They have a narrow mouth, a small nose, and four-fingered hands and feet. They have a certain benevolent look about them. Their eyes are large and oval, green or blue, and they wear dark protective lenses when traveling out of their environment. Their skin is light brown or even pale blue of them. Another thing about their skin is that it’s very thick, like leather, because they evolved on a hot planet with harsh conditions.

Clothing-wise, they prefer blue for cultural reasons. Their atmosphere was hot and saturated with carbon, which is the environment they adapted to. They modified the atmosphere of their new planet to fit this requirement; their ships are discoidal, which are high modules above and beneath, flat-roofed. On another note, it’s believed that in one of the three crashes in New Mexico in 1947, the EBENs were the occupants. Some say it was the Zetas, but there were several crashes that year, so this is speculation only. Info from Alien Races by Elena Danaan and Project Serpo by Len Kasten.

They have two massive underground caverns in Antarctica that hold huge, highly populated cities of the Draco. However, when the Dracos came here, they encountered other advanced beings, such as the Anunnaki, Selosi, and Lyrans. The Galactic Federation then created an energetic barrier to prevent external Dracos from entering the earth's proximity. So the Earth Dracos are basically locked in 3D. These lizard beings were the ones that the Dark fleet allied with during WW2, and they significantly influenced the German wartime machine. The Nazis entered a treaty with them to get refuge in the Antarctica bases and technology in exchange for their obedience and to be their servants. This resulted in creation of the Dark fleet – a Secret Space Program. When Admiral Byrd went down to Antarctica to demolish the German breakaway faction in the infamous "Operation High Jump," they encountered the Dark Fleet Germans. The US knew immediately that they were inferior to the Antarctica Alliance. They returned in silence with severe losses. "Operation Paperclip" was a project that brought German scientists overseas to the US post WW2. Many Nazis, with Draco's influence, ended up in positions of power in the US, thereby corrupting the whole system. This is the type of warfare the Dracos do. Intelligent infiltration of high positions to control. We have heard about the abductions of children, and these creatures have a hunger for human flesh. Currently, the Dracos are being escorted away from this planet with the help of the Galactic Federation of Worlds. This is a covert operation but with extremely high stakes.

“Emerther” is one of the leader alien species in the “Council of 5”, found in KGB files to be a council of five extraterrestrial species that protect the earth against other malignant aliens and from our human self-destruction. The Emerther is a peaceful race. People who have met them portray them as intelligent, humorous, and generally very pleasant to be around—residing in Tau Ceti in the Cetus constellation. Their world is supposed to be a wonderful place of peace, high spirituality, and wisdom. They look a little similar to the Greys and are distant relatives of the Solipsu Rai. The Emerther range is only about 1 meter in height, with a pretty large head and pale skin. They have large blue eyes underneath their dark eye covers.

One thing to notice is that this is the race that, in 1954, came to warn

Eisenhower about the Do-hu Greys and Ciakharrs agenda. The humans discarded this info as we know it, and here we are. There is an alliance group of 5 races that refer to themselves as “The Council of Five,” of which the Emerther is a member. These races have been protecting Earth and Humans for as long as we can look back. They apparently answered our transmission into space with a message that we must be alert and aware of the Orion group. “

The famous case of Skinny Bob” was said to be part of a diplomatic mission from a planet some 40 light years away sent to discuss “matters of mutual concern.” Alleged footage of a real Emerther can be found on Youtube.

The Egaroth are a spiritual race in the Orion Belt, Alinam, 200 light years from Earth. They are rare as they were almost extinct. This is a race that displays wisdom and ancient knowledge and are said be very loving. They have pale brown skin, large heads, and skinny bodies. They are not a conquering race but always seek diplomacy and balance in the universe. The Egaroth can exist in very high densities, up to the ninth, where they can hide from negative interference. And only exist in etheric form. Above 6th density, there is not possible for negative energies to exist. Most negative races will not be able to reach higher than 5th density. The Egaroth can shapeshift, but its not often they use this ability. They seek areas of conflict and do their part in balancing the energies.

Regarding their travel abilities, they use their diamond-shaped ship to travel interdimensional. The Egaroth are members of the Council of Five, and as allies of the Galactic Federation, they work to liberate Earth. Info from the book; Alien Races by Elena Danaan.

They have a base on Ganymede, a moon of Jupiter. This moon is a small planet with a very thin layer of misty atmosphere. They appear slightly different from the standard Grey type, even though they sometimes use protective lenses on their eyes: a small narrow mouth and a pretty large nose. According to the contactee Elena Danaan they don’t reproduce anymore even though they have two genders. They manually fabricate a new being and imbue a soul using advanced technology. The Paa Tal is an ancient tall humanoid referred to as the builder race, founders, and the Seeder race. Paa Tal is these four races the Ainu-Ra, Mem-Ra, Shin-Ra, and the youngest the Ashand. The first three you may know as the Golden Ones. First, these three races existed only in 12D, but eventually, they learned how to manifest into a physical form where they resemble 12 feet tall, handsome elves. Alex Collier says that we fell into the concept of time prior to 21 billion years ago when 3rd density physicality did not exist.

The Paa Tal created 3rd density to play this game, and they created life forms that could evolve on their own, with free expression and the choice of free will, and they aim to serve and preserve it. They can exist in the 11th density but will also manifest in our lower realities. This collective group of conscious beings has incarnated here to hold and guide us back to the frequency of love through all of this upheaval we are about to experience. Their job is to keep the vibration of love because when the regressive E.Ts quietly invaded earth, they began to shift the vibration of our planet. Because of their intense dominating and controlling consciousness, they changed everything on the surface over thousands of years. Our present and future would be very different if these E.Ts did not invade. According to recent intel from DR. Michael Salla, they had a colony here on Earth, where Antarctica is now, but back when it was a tropical area. This was a peaceful and very prosperous civilization. They left some high-tech structures or arks under Lake Vostok in Antarctica to be hidden in the ice and for us to discover in these times. But the only way to unlock these technologies is through conscious DNA activation. As of April 2022, it's locked but rapidly heating up the ice. The Paa Tal is here now to assist us in getting back on track and make us realize that we can empower ourselves to change from what is to what we want.

Some believe them to be tall light pastel-colored hybrid-looking beings with large eyes and elongated skulls. They seeded life on Gaia/Earth 500 million years ago, where they stayed for 300 million years. After they left, they constantly kept a protecting eye on Earth - for the Almighty. They have large motherships—Member of the InterGalactic Confederation, a.k.a the Super Federation. Ourselves only create these terms and labels to distinguish the various groups from each other.

Their lifespan is 120 earth years, and despite their skinny appearance, they have great physical strength. These guys are also very much a part of the abduction agenda and are said to have been the minds behind the great plagues such as the Black Death. They reproduce artificially and have giant dark disk-shaped crafts used for their abductions and slave trades.

According to Elena Danan, they have been visiting us for some time in an attempt to colonize Earth. However, they encountered other competitors, such as Anunnaki and the Dracos. The Maytra have colonized over 20

THE COUNCIL OF BETELGUESE WERE THE ORIGINAL ILLUMINATI WHEN IT TRULY MEANT “ILLUMINED ONES.

The Anunnaki are enemies of the Lyran race and the Ciakahrr Empire. We believe them to be of reptoid qualities as they are cold blooded. Greek gods like Poseidon are based on the Anunnaki legend in Greek mythology. Physically they are said to be taller than us and more muscular. They have two genders, male and female, but they reproduce by laying eggs. Some are depicted to have lots of hair and long beards, while some are described as bald with white or dark skin. The Anunnaki are incredibly skilled with genetics and has created many types of species. Since their technological advancement is prominent, they also have destructive weapons that are feared throughout the galaxy. They have lots of colonies, and they don´t obey any rules anywhere. 13 million years ago, the Orion wars (Orion Empire vs. Galactic Federation) was finally reaching a peace treaty. The Sirians purposed to create a common ruling dynasty, mixing the genetics of humanoid members of the Orion Royalty (reptilian/human hybrids) with high-ranking members of the Federation (pure human). Figuring it was worth a shot, the plan was set into motion. So a new royal hybrid race was created — the 10-14 foot tall, muscular, dark-skinned, warrior-like humanoids that we know in our history as the Anunnaki. Unfortunately, the “marriage” and subsequent new royal lineage didn’t have the result that the Sirians had hoped for. Because of their different heritages, they were a race divided amongst themselves almost from the start. It would prove to be challenging for the Anunnaki to unite as one family or to hold to one set of principles. The Anunnaki settled on the planet Nibiru in a star system called Immaru (Aldebaran). It was in a parallel dimension. They were able to traverse dimensions at will using a particular portal technology located in the Orion system. The Anunnaki landed in Mesopotamia in pre-Egyptian times, and they found a presence there of the Draco reptilians. But the Anunnaki defeated the Reptilians with the help of another feline race called the Laan and became the new rulers of Earth. They founded their colonies and built the first cities with large palaces and other structures, such as spaceports, around 350,000 years ago. The now-called Nibirians adopted a monarchical system they would later establish on planet Earth, with Anu as the highest authority. This is the basis for the bloodlines in our times of monarchy. The Nibirians changed their name to Anunnakis" (A-nun-na-ki). The Anunnaki word itself can be translated in to «Human like.» The leading cause for the Nibirians to return to our planet Earth was to start the expansion of projects and the formation of colonies. They also saw our planet as a prosperous place that should be part of their new dominions. They discovered that it was rich in raw materials, and they were interested in the extraction of minerals, especially gold, copper, and silver they even created large mining deposits in many parts of the world. Some E.Ts like Bashar will tell you that the Anunnaki genetically limited our DNA, locking it to two active strands. Others claim that they came to earth to mine gold because they needed it to save their own planet Nibiru and that they left as soon as this job was completed. There could have been many reasons they came; we don't know.

When we talk about the hybrid children, this is a result of a long ongoing breathing program that the hybrid races Sassani, Mazani, Yahyel, Shalanayah, and the Plahyel have conducted allegedly in order to save their own existence. The Sassani is a 50/50 mix of Greys and Humans, and the Yahyel are even more human, so hybrid children are referred to as the sixth hybrid race and are genetically very close to the Earth humans. It has to do with compatibility. These humans that are abducted had, on a higher soul level, agreed to take part in the agenda to awaken humankind to our infinite expressions and reunite us with our galactic family. Hybrids children who can feel and express empathy for others are intelligently gifted and have much longer life spans than Humans: Those who encompass the best of our species and their species. This program is meant to create a bridge between the Terrans and the E.Ts, which is supposed to be the best way. There has, however, been some pushback on this grey hybrid agenda. Some claim this may be a Trojan horse trap by the Zetas to infiltrate once again or invade us. After all, we have no consent, even though they claim it’s a soul contract. Let’s be careful; if the wrong Greys are behind, their soul is not human; it’s a Grey hive soul.

Sirius is the apparent epicenter of the Ashtar. The Sirians have waged war in the past with the Orion Empire or the “Unholy Six” reptilian star systems in the Orion open cluster. They are among the best-known entities in the Separatist faction from the Ashtar Collective from Sirius B. Due to infiltrations of the Ciakahrr Empire in their homeworld, a good part of the ethically aligned Ashkeru separated from the Ashtar Collective. It sided with the Galactic Federation of Worlds. These people were military specialists, and the Galactic Federation of Worlds offered the Ashtar separatists to help with operations in the Terran Sol system. Just in the vicinity of planet Jupiter, they built a large and very advanced space station to be used as an outpost. They took the name of Ashtar Galactic Command so they would not be confused with the Ashtar Collective. The Ashtar Command’s outpost in your planetary system relates to the Galactic Federation of Worlds. ”Ash-Tar” is a title that means ”Command” and is used as well as ”High Commander.” It is not a personal name as often believed in confusing misleading information. According to Elena Danaan, they are here to assist Earth and humanity through the current cycle of planetary cleansing and polar realignment and the birthing of humanity from dense-physical to physical-etheric bodies of light, capable of ascending into the fifth dimension along with the Earth. Their ships are high-tech, with mind surveillance systems that prevent negative entities and energies from entering their space.

On Saturday, 26 November 1977, a crucial message was delivered to the world. Andrew Gardner was presenting the early-evening news on Southern TV when suddenly the TV picture went wavy, followed by a strange buzzing noise and a distorted voice. A representative of the Ashtar Galactic Command called Vrillon made himself known. After nearly 6 minutes, the interruption stopped, and transmissions returned to normal.

It’s well known that’s there some controversy about the real intent of the Ashtar Command. But some contactees swear that Commander Ashtar is a very loving, tall, and handsome-looking Nordic being and not the Sirius B, T´ashkeru at all.

Ummit/Ummites live on Wolf-424, planet Ummo, 14,6 earthly light-years from your system. That's not too far, speaking in general terms. The Ummits are very involved in assisting us and are descendants of the Lyran A-hel race, just like us. They also have ancestry ties with the Lyran Noor races and the Vega humanoids. Ummit have this particularity of a high forehead, which visually tells them apart from the other Man races.

The Ummits eyes have strange facial proportions compared to the Earth humanoids. They are mainly blond, and their life expectancy of about 200 Earth years. The Ummits are working actively with the Galactic Federation of worlds on a scientific program to assist the development and integration of Earth sciences. As members of the Federation, the non-intervention rule applies to a level 1 civilization (level 2 is interstellar travel). They, therefore, come around it by contacting civilians, often technically gifted professionals who can comprehend the messages' content. They do this instead of getting official government-controlled scientists because this lesson was learned long ago. They unveil detailed technical information on different technologies and theories in order to expand scientific knowledge. They wish to inspire our society with new ideas and influence innovative science projects without brutally breaking the dynamics of a species' growth. Sharing technical information, transforming scientific culture, and global education, the Ummit assist in global solutions to new scientific paradigms and developing environmentally friendly technologies. We know them to have discoidal ships. They came to Earth in 1973 because they had received a radio transmission and decided to investigate. The Ummites transmitted, via a Terran contactee, this message:

"For 30 years, we have studied your science, culture, history, and civilizations. All this information we have carried from your Earth to the planet Ummo in our titanium crystals codified with data. We have demonstrated our culture and technology in purely descriptive form - so you cannot convert them or realize them practically. We have done this because we note with sadness that you employ your sciences primarily for war and the destruction of yourselves, which continue as your principal objective. You are like children playing with terrible, dangerous toys that may destroy you. We can do nothing!

A cosmic law says that each world must take its path to survive or perish. You have chosen the second. You are destroying your planet - annihilating your species, and contaminating your atmosphere and seas until now is irreversible. With sadness, we contemplate your insanity and understand that the remedy is only in yourselves.

We cannot look forward a great distance into your future because your psyche is unpredictable and capricious, bordering on paranoia. As your elder brothers in this cosmos, we urgently desire with all our hearts your salvation. Do not destroy your beautiful blue planet, a rare atmosphere world that floats so majestically in space, so full of life. It is your choice".

The Draconians are a group of many different reptilian races originating in the starcluster Alpha Draconis. The Draco was dumped into the Thuban Star system in Alpha Draconis using interdimensional portals by another superior race called the Tiamtians. It’s in their nature to crave domination and control, and they were supposedly the first race to map the universe and were extremely powerful and arrogant. The Draconians are by many referred to as the ultimate warrior species and believe themselves at the top of the food chain in the reptilian hierarchy. The master Draconian race is a 18-24 feet tall white and is called Ciakharr White Royale.

Another high-ranking group is the brown or green-scaled Nagai. They are warrior cast, smaller, and less muscular than the others, but they are no joke either. Also, there is the Sigma Draconis, known for their shapeshifting abilities. I can also mention the Kalask, Epsilon Draco, Mazarek, Aka, Horungas, and the Morkul. In addition, there are also many genetically modified Grey-reptilians and some positive and neutral species that are not as prominent as the ones mentioned. Their collective works as a hive-type mentality, and they are not very spiritual in nature. Within their community, they have a caste system with ranks. A warrior caste. They have engineers, scientists, workers, and warriors. They have their royalty on top that controls everything. Depicted here is the Draconian King, and many assume that this is where the legend of the Devil derives from. The Draconians have genetically intermingled so much that they have six different genders that “trend” from male to female. These various “genders” can look like other species. Since their birth, they are indoctrinated with the belief that love is weak and hate is strong. At the time of birth, they are abandoned to fend for themselves. Most of the time, they are cared for by the warrior class that uses the children for Darwinian combat games and amusements.

They are brilliant and technologically advanced and masters of covert invasion tactics. The Alpha Draconians first visited earth 15000 years ago, and they honestly believe they are destined to rule our sector of the galaxy. Alpha Draconians created the primate race, first brought to Mars and then to Earth. Many other different races then tinkered with the primate race. So the Alpha Draconians view humans as cattle and a resource they can enslave and dominate. They consider us scum, not worthy of their attention even. When they invade a planet, they usually send a less frightening race, like the Do-Hu Greys, as probes first and then use them to build some relationship with the indigenous species, which again allows them to enter through a backdoor. Many races have been conquered and turned into slaves, mind-controlled puppets for the universal reptilian agenda. The Draconians have been in control of Earth for a long time, acting from behind the curtains, not wanting to be exposed. Another unique thing about the Draconians is their energy signature.

The upper class has horns, winged appendages, and a large tail usually seen, with very golden yellow-reddish to blue eyes and vertical slit pupils. The royal whites are four the density beings, and some can shapeshift at will. They have muscular bodies covered in white scales and act as armor to protect them from penetration. Sometimes they also wear external armor. Alex Collier says they have two hearts, one under each armpit and a colossal liver. They are violent, and since their culture is very Darwinian, they strive to become the most vicious warriors possible. One of their trademarks is their 6-inch long claw fingers with one finger that has a talon. They have the strength of over ten men and appear as half-lizard, half-man. Like most reptilians, they like it humid and warm. They will hibernate for long periods, which is very suitable when traveling long distances. They are conquerors; they traveled throughout the galaxy, looking for other humanoid groups that evolved out of reptilian life. Everywhere they found this life, they infiltrated, mixed their DNA with them, and brought them into their Empire. The Royal Whites are very warlike but have already been largely defeated throughout the galaxy. Our Local Cluster is one of the only places left where they can live. The most densely populated area of sub-races of Draconians is the constellation of Orion, Rigel, and the star system known as Capella.

They are among the most telepathic in our sector and among the most feared. Their bodies thrive on the negative energy released by beings when experiencing negative feelings like despair, anger, fear, sadness, and hate. We call this loosh, and we are a loosh-production machine, on which they are utterly dependent for survival. Corey Goode claims to have encountered one Royale Draco in an underground base and describes it as being mentally raped. The worst experience he ever had. These Royale Dracos create wars, famine, etc., to feed their energy hunger. We are just a resource to them, and they are also fond of human flesh. Sacrifice rituals are often done for physical need and the obtainment of Adrenochrome- A chemical substance released by the human body during extreme traumatic experiences. They love the deception. The only way to keep them at bay is via the high love vibration. They can't stand it. They would never invade and kill us because they need us as a resource. They have more tricks up their sleeves as they can travel inter-dimensionally and cloak at will. So, they control our world in a way that suits their needs. They abduct humans for experimentation, food, and genetics. They work in Area 51 alongside the Orions and the Draconians and are in close connection with the negative parts of the compromised governments. They are apparently very strict when it comes to deals made and if a certain deal is broken by the humans it will have severe con-sequences. Charles Hall says would only trade communication technology and would not trade faster than light technology or anti-gravity tech. Basically, the Kiily Tokurt would only share breadcrumbs but would help build the devices themselves. They have large triangular dull black ships and have these have been frequently sited especially around the western part of the USA.

They reach 6 -9 feet and have elongated skulls and thin bodies. We don’t know much about them, but their homeworld is apparently dull, dry, and cold. As part of the Alliance of 6, NEBU is pretty negative. They work with the Cabal in underground bases in Dulce and Area 51, specializing in hybridization programs and soul scalping. The latter is a horrific procedure to steal and transfer souls into clone beings. They are doing this because they use the cloning program to transfer human souls into clones. They have nine leaders acting as hubs for their collective mind- connecting to the Orion queen in the Orion sector. According to Elena Danaan, the Galactic

Federation of Worlds captured all nine and put them in containment so they would remain detached from their Orion red queen, an AI feared across the galaxy. This disconnect would render the Ebans totally confused and without a mission anchor. However, other sources say this is not the case and that they are still very active. It´s hard to know at this point.

According to the author Len Kasten, they are tall, green, and very much a giant version of the Praying Mantis we have here on earth. They may reach the height of 9 feet tall and are highly telepathic. They are mentally powerful, unemotional, rational, and calculated. The Akhara Mantis lays eggs. They are master geneticists, and even though they seem malevolent, it’s more accurate to say neutral, as they don’t have the built-in ethics we do. They do what is best for themself, even if that sometimes entails working for some really questionable E.Ts; they possess the skill of consciousness manipulation, have their own ethics based on logic, and only look after their own interests, making decisions that will benefit their race. Due to their genetic skills and their desired timeline and dimension manipulation skills, they are craved by the Grey Collective and Orion Alliance to assist in their experiments, and that is the only place where they are seen. So, the lower density Mantis beings are negative towards us, but the higher density version of the Amhara is actually helping raise Earth’s consciousness. They appear to us as light beings with and mantis outline.

There are, however, some major differences. They are mainly bipedal in stature. Their skin, smooth and hairless, is noted for its iridescent colors, which range from bright reds, oranges and greens to yellows and browns. Unlike those of Earth's amphibians, the eyes are not too bulgy, but are quite large, 'wraparound' and bright red, orange, or greenish-yellow in color. The nose consists of two small slits above a very thin set of lips. The mouth, when opened, is very large and frog-like. The ears are two small round circles on either side of the head. The head is large and seemingly disproportionate to the rest of the body, while the neck seems to be non-existent. The body, arms and legs are very muscular. Toes and fingers are long, thin, webbed, and four in number: toes have small claws. They have 2 genders. The males, slightly smaller than the females, are between 7 to 8 feet (2.13 to 2.44 meters) in height. The females, slightly larger, ranging from 7.5 to 8.5 feet (2.29 to 2.59 meters) tall. Mintakans are also noted for a series of three small, thin, interconnected riles than run up their backs and end at the top of their heads Despite this they display tremendous strength. The Grails have caused much harm in our neighborhood star systems. With little organizing skills they lack the ability to really expand their empire. They are also considered overly aggressive by many and they avoid our Solar system since they know that there may be undesired confrontations with the Dracos, Maytray or The Federation. They are technologically very advanced but lack spiritual awareness.

We are unaware of our abilities, and our power has been taken away. So these parasites have taken on a form based on our personas. The Archons pull all the negative strings and are believed to be the etheric master of the Draco Empire. The Draco controls the rest of the service to self beings, including Zetas, Maytras, and other reptilian factions. The Archons are fully operational here on Earth. And behind layers of reality, the Archons are hellbent on keeping the Earth’s vibration low because of multidimensional or metaphysical consciousness. If we ascend to a higher conscious state, that will leave them nothing to feed on because they provide negative emotions. Low-vibration emotions emit a frequency that resonates very much with them. That’s why the Archons have infected everything, to keep us down. As soon they occupy a vessel, they take over some aspects of the personality. These entities are responsible for the most famine, wars, and other negativity. These are supposedly that race, even though his depiction may divert from this one. Cryptic Chronicles claim that they are the creators of some reptilian race Alpha Draconis, but this might be another related species.

Other sources say 45 Carians first arrived in this universe when it was created to assist the founders in overseeing the universal principles. At that point, they were etheric, above 5th density, and had to develop physical bodies from the life forms evolving on the planet's surface. They started experimenting on certain reptiles living in their world as time passed. Eventually, they mixed their genetics into them, and the first reptilian being was created, part Carian and part reptile. We know them as the Draconian Race.

ICC, Earth alliance, Solar Warden, Military-industrial complex SSP, SSP Alliance, Project moon shadow, Mars Defense force, Global Galactic League of Nations, and The Dark fleet.

Many whistleblowers have come forth and claimed they have been in these programs. For the sake of objectivity, I will give credence to the testimonies from Corey Goode, Tony Rodriguez, Randy Cramer, Niara Terela Isley, Ileana, Anthony Zender, Apollomy, Mark Domizio, James Rink, Ismael Perez, Johan Fritz, Emery Smith, and Penny Bradly. Visit youtube and find “Supersoldier Talk” for heavy info on this topic. Also, I recommend reading Dr. Michael Sallas’s books on The Secret Space Programs. Also, the “Ceres Colony Cavalier” by Tony Rodriguez is an absolute must to read in order to understand how horrible these people have been treated in their 20 & back services in the SSP, especially the Dark Fleet and ICC. In the 1940s, just after the Roswell incident, the US military founded the highly secretive CIA group MJ12, which led to many covert programs without congressional oversight. The US Government created a project called Project Bluebook in 1952 to stem the public demand for an investigation of the ever-increasing wave of UFO sightings. When the program was shut down in 1969, it went dark and eventually grew into astronomical proportions involving the military-industrial complex, private contractors, and Extraterrestrials. These endeavors were free from all strings and could operate without congressional overview. The MJ12 signed a treaty in 1954 called the Greada Treaty with the Grey Extraterrestrials (Orion group). As a result of the cold war, several military-industrial programs that had access to E.T. tech saw the light of day.

The Alliance launched the highly secretive space program called «Solar Warden,» whose mission was to police our solar system and to fight off hostile and dethrone other Earth-based SSPs such as the German «Dark Fleet» and «ICC.» President Eisenhower warned us about the growing power of the military-industrial complex back in 1959 because his endeavor the end this secrecy had failed. Eventually, a positive faction of prominent intelligence, military, and positive E.T. emerged and formed a counter initiative called «The Alliance.» This was sorely needed as these privatized factions increasingly had growing influence.

SECRET SPACE PROGRAMS

Unknown artist

The Ummit and the Pleiadians gifted Solar Warden E.T.-tech to balance development in the Galactic Federation of worlds. There are clear indications that we had human-looking Extraterrestrial assistance for many years advising «The Alliance» of tactics and technological progress to compete with the negative areas within the military-industrial complex. The military (US) receives vast amounts of information from the E.Ts, but few understand how that knowledge is transferred. The aliens don't give us blueprints and tell us to build them. Information is transferred partially via telepathy, like uploading data on a computer. We have received highly advanced technology and free energy from the ETS, but they are locked up in top-secret projects. Advanced ET science/technology is hidden and utilized fully within these unacknowledged special access projects (USAP) but not yet shared with the world. In alternative circles, there is much talk about a «Med-Beds,» for example, and there are anti-gravity propulsion systems of many types. These technologies are destined to be released pretty soon to benefit the human race, according to sources from the Pleiades.

So we now know where all the missing money went that could not be accounted for. The book «Selected by Extra Terrestrials» by William Thomkins explains how the E.Ts helped us reach the technological level of the enemies. Nordic Aliens assisted engineers in developing advanced propulsion systems and crafts to serve in the Solar Warden program. It was created as a form of interplanetary border control to stop malevolent invaders from stealing more humans than they were allowed. Developed in the 1960s and 1970s and deployed in 1980, Solar Warden is one of the earliest secret space programs.

As international corporate interests became aware of the potential profits from interacting with E.T.s, another program was soon developed. Various insiders claim that Skunk Works has also made spacecraft capable of reaching other worlds. These witnesses to the secret space programs claim that Lockheed, Northrop Grumman, and various non-aerospace corporations all joined together to form an organization called the Interplanetary Corporate Conglomerate (ICC) with the objective of intergalactic trade. According to secret space program insider Corey Goode, the ICC does trading from their bases on Mars with over 900 extraterrestrial species. Human beings have the genetic codes valuable to other species that have reached a level of development roughly comparable to ours. This is where the horrible human trafficking comes in. These Mars bases are staffed by slaves who were taken from Earth in the 1970s and 1980s, and many of these slaves have now had children who are doomed to a life of servitude unless we change this. They are humans in a breakaway civilization.

We have all heard that our worlds are controlled by a group of very influential people operating in the background. These are business moguls, elites, royalties, heads of dynasties, and others. They control our worldviews because they control the media, a large portion of the governments worldwide, the pharmaceutical industry, the financial system, and most of the military-industrial complex. It is not hard to see the agendas if you are willing to put two and two together. This is the real conspiracy. If they control everything, does it mean that the state of the world today is their doing? The answer is yes, but it´s not only for their motivation. You see, above the Cabal group, there is another control mechanism. It's the Draconians. Up till recently, they have been able to do pretty much whatever they want. And they want us in a state of unknowing obedience. They don't want us to know about the E.T presence, but they still want to feed on us.

We could probably have a more peaceful planet if it weren't for them. They love to feed on the loose (Energy we release in negative emotional states), and the agreements with Cabal will make sure there is continuing suffering and ongoing wars or famines. You might have noticed that there has been an escalation of adverse events, and the narrative is to keep the world's population in a state of fear. Could this be a sign that the fight is ramping up? The history of this iron grip goes back a long time.

We were covertly invaded by the Ciakahrr Empire in the post-Atlantis era and recently by the Orion Group (NEBU) in the 1950s. Originally, competitors became allies to establish dominion over Earth. They aim to create an energetic and physical slave colony, as they have done in many other worlds. I spoke about the connection between the Cabal and the Draconian Empire. Due to their covert invasion tactics, they have organized themselves into strategic positions of power using soul swapping, reincarnations, mind infesting, mind control, extortion, and masterful chess moves.

I believe this influence is the origin of Satanism because very harmful occult rituals are practiced in elite circles. Also, there is the horrible human trafficking of children. I will not go too deep into this, but let's say it´s the thing that will shock the world the most when this pandora's box finally breaks open. We should have seen this coming and put our foot down a long ago, but humanity has spiritually, ethically, and technologically been held back by the Orions and Dracos. We have been sleeping and easy to control. It's an unwritten rule in the galactic community that free will is the one thing that needs to be respected by everyone. By not understanding what's been going on and being able to reject this atrocity, they see that as consent. So it's time to wake up and take our rights back.

THE COVERT INVASION
BEHIND LOCKED DOORS

We have evidence that horrific experiments and abuse have been carried out by the CIA on humans for a long time to understand how the human brain can be exploited. I am currently reading a book by Tony Rodriquez where he tells all. He was one of the thousands, perhaps millions, of children that were kidnapped into the Project Monarch and MK Ultra. He talks about the Satanic rituals, sexual abuse at the extensive terror these children went through before entering Secret Space Programs or becoming Sex slaves and sold for amusement to some elites and even other E.T races. I urge you to read the book: CERES COLONY CAVALIER. He and many others claim that rituals, sacrifices, torture, human trafficking, and cannibalism are common in elite occult circles.

The world's leaders have constructed societal norms, staffed technology development, manipulated weather, divided us, and denied us information about the extra-terrestrial existence. It has come to the point where we act as our correctional officers. Anyone trying to approach the forbidden areas or doubts the government's intentions should be viewed as paranoid, unpatriotic, and even crazy- where the proper response would be ridiculed or labeled. This underlying protective measure of creating a ridicule campaign was very successful and has been used as a power tool. Divide and conquer is the oldest trick in the book. The CIA invented the term «Conspiracy Theory» just after the Kennedy assassination to discredit anyone who would want to dig into the JFK case to figure out who did it and why. Since then, the mainstream has continued to convince the western population that democratic processes choose their leaders and that there is no other interest than serving the people. I wish I lived in a world where this utopian world was real, but unfortunately, it's not. I am sad that our prominent leaders are ethically compromised and answer to the cabal. For over 70 years, the ruling class has transformed the modern mainstream media into a mass control tool. These media pyramid-empire are in deep cohesion with the intelligence agencies and other centralized structures to control the narrative. This has undermined our right to free speech, massively censoring and dividing our society into groups that oppose each other. So slowly but surely, people have become unable to access and process unfiltered news that does not fit the narrative of mainstream perception/indoctrination. We live in a perverted reality.

But we see signs of hope, as these dark activities are being addressed by the Galactic Federation and the Earth Alliance to bring justice to perpetrators and heal the victims of these horrendous crimes. It’s time to shed light on the dark agendas that have been running unknowingly in the background. But first, we need to unlearn everything that holds us back; that’s for another video. And now, we are free from the chains because the optimistic guys upstairs have removed the oppressors. They want to help us but are also bound by the laws. Do not interfere with an evolving race. But they have assisted us in the background, not revealing their operations.

We are prisoners of our minds because the mind is connected to the Matrix. This limited AI-controlled reality framework is very restrictive, considering what we are capable of. The Archons created the Matrix for the purpose of keeping earth humans in chains. The indoctrination of religion, culture, and science is only a control mechanism created by the Archonic reptilian rulers at the time and kept tight by servants in the following times. Media and Religion are the main indoctrination tools they use. When revolutionary new ideas are born, most of them are kept secret and only utilized by a selected few to serve the few. We know, for instance, that the Earth is on the brink of collapse, but the media tells us we have no answers. The truth is we have much-advanced technology that could fix these problems. We could improve our environment and health and even travel to the stars. But those technologies are owned by the same people that run the media, and those are again run by what turned out to be an E.T component. So there is no absolute free will as long as our lives depend on the masonic money slave system. We need to break out and detach from this spell, and I urge you all to raise your vibration to a level we feel free. But this experience is a soul contract, meaning that they agreed on a higher level to go through this to nourish their higher self. It’s all about perspectives.

THE CABAL

IINFILTRATION INTO CRUCIAL POSITIONS OF THE POWER STRUCTURES.

IIdeas about a dark elite, aka the Illuminati, such as the Cabal and Deep State. Our consciousness has been targeted through mainstream media, politics, and social engineering. Those who direct the media control the whole narrative and have been for a long time. Such claims are often referred to as paranoid delusion, and such ideas are off-limits in the perfect democratic world. But nothing can be further from the truth. Democracy does not have a corrupt group of people behind the scenes controlling every aspect of our lives. These people don't care about us; they have pacts with forces you are not meant to know about. A force that reaches far outside this earth, the force that has laid the foundation for our depiction of a devil. The Reptilians from Alpha Draconis. They are the ones that own the mainstream media and are hammering down independent thinkers. There are many types and levels within these groups, and most don't really know the whole agenda due to heavy compartmentalization. The top dogs are worshippers of Lucifer and practice occult and satanic rituals, such as human sacrifice, control, and torture. Occult laws bind them, and one of their most in ex The Dollar bill and the eye in the pyramid: It's their way of telling us what they are doing". Silence means compliance to them.

THE ALLIANCE

THE WHITE HATS & THE Q INITIATIVE

The Alliance is a group of highly influential people from different world areas. They act as counterparts to the Cabal. Some factions thought this was a necessary act to cease the growing power of the Cabal. There are about 180 countries represented in this group, and the US Navy Military leads it. Donald Trump was supposedly brought in as a strong character because of his personality. His devotion made him a perfect president to help bring down the old corrupt establishment. I do not want to go into politics, but I will say that there are signals that link him and the Q phenomenon. The Q initiative was a way to counteract the mainstream propaganda machine and create a movement for truthseekers.

The opposing forces own the media, so the only way for the Alliance the leek ongoing operational intel to the people was through an uncensored platform. Parallel to this, there is a Secret Space Program called “Solar Warden,” also a part of “The Earth Alliance.” The drip-drip disclosure from whistleblowers has gained severe momentum due to the intriguing information about the elite and their connection with corruption, human trafficking, and their so-called depopulation program; Agenda 21. Large operations are being carried out in the shadows to take down and escort the puppet masters, aka Orion Group and the Draconians, out of the Solar system. A battle of dark and light is being fought in this galaxy, and it has mirrored itself into our reality right now.

ABDUCTIONS

There are many reasons why abductions occur, but it’s now evident that some genetic programs are going on. They have been allowed by our leaders to take a limited amount of people if they were to bring them back after the abductions. Even though their memories are most often wiped clean from an incident, some have been able to retrieve memories using hypnotic regression.

The small «Greys» have been very much involved as they are the ones performing the abductions. When the victims are taken into a ship or an underground base, there is often the Praying Mantis-looking insectoid in charge. They are known to be the genetic masterminds. Some human-looking people are keeping their distance in the background. Most likely the Akkori or the Taal Shiar. Sometimes they will proceed to impregnate the female and then release her back into society, where she will carry the embryo for a couple of months. They re-abduct her only to extract the hybrid fetus. Later, maybe years later, they are retaken only to meet the children.

They are very curious about our emotions. Some are implanted with chips and extract sperm, eggs, and fetuses. Most have gone through weird experiences for reasons only the aliens know. This leads us to believe a hybrid agenda is also taking place.

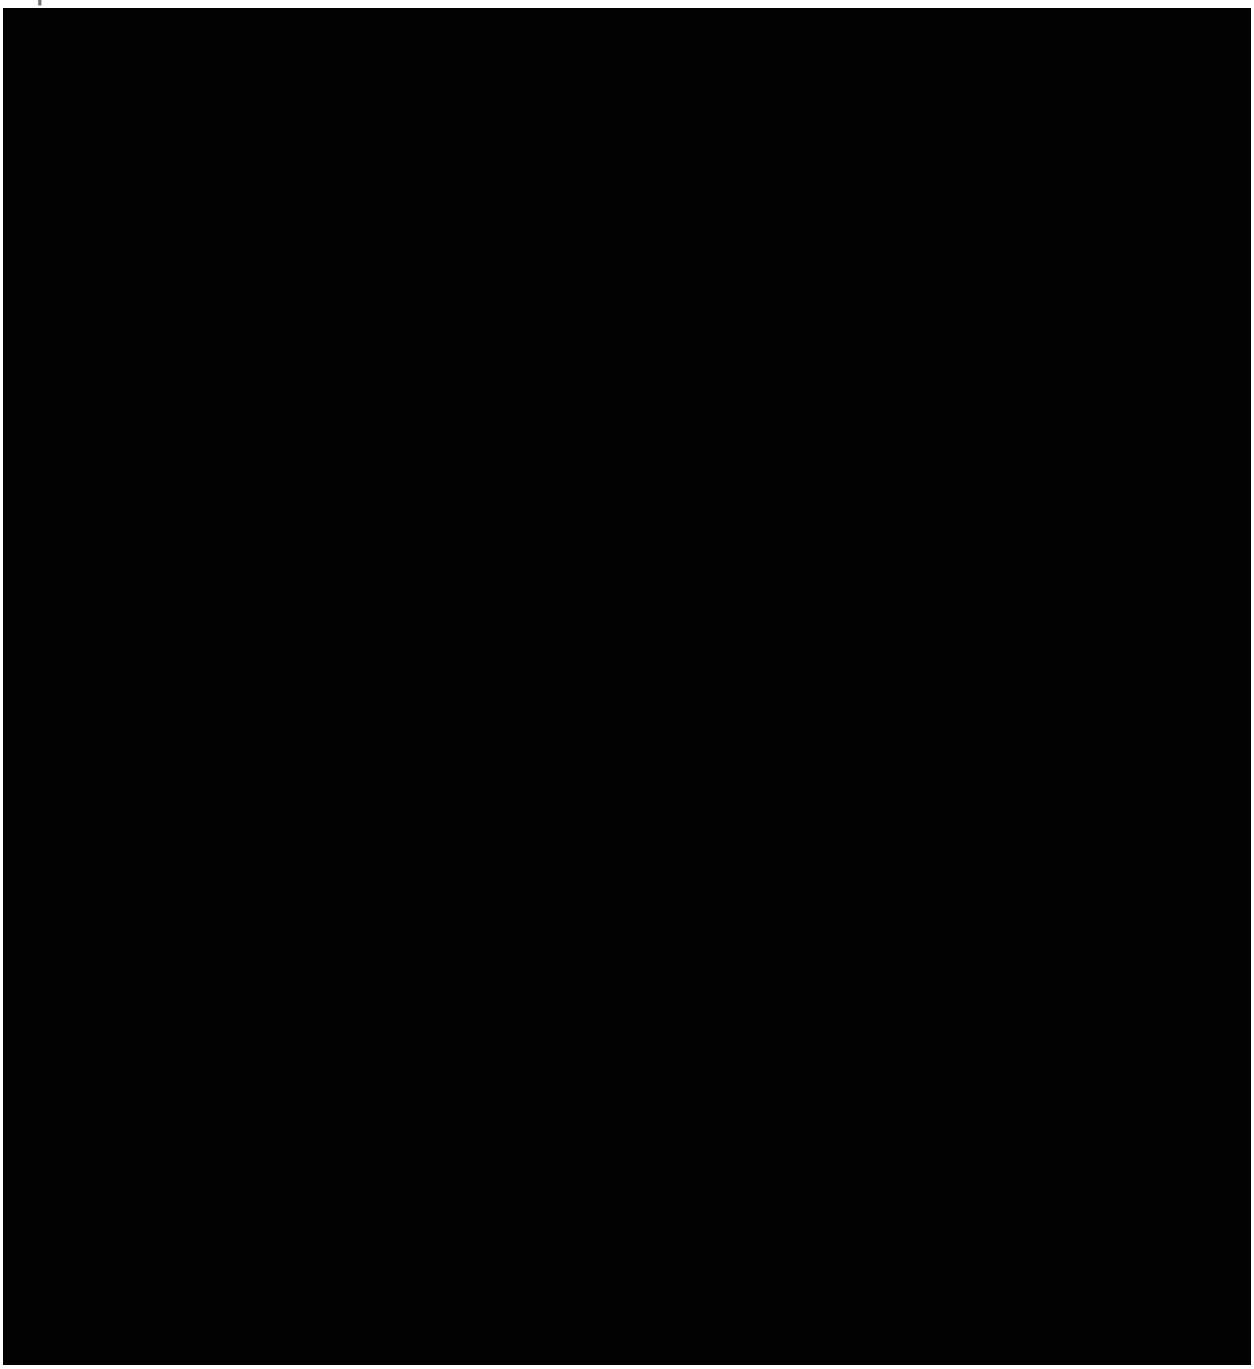
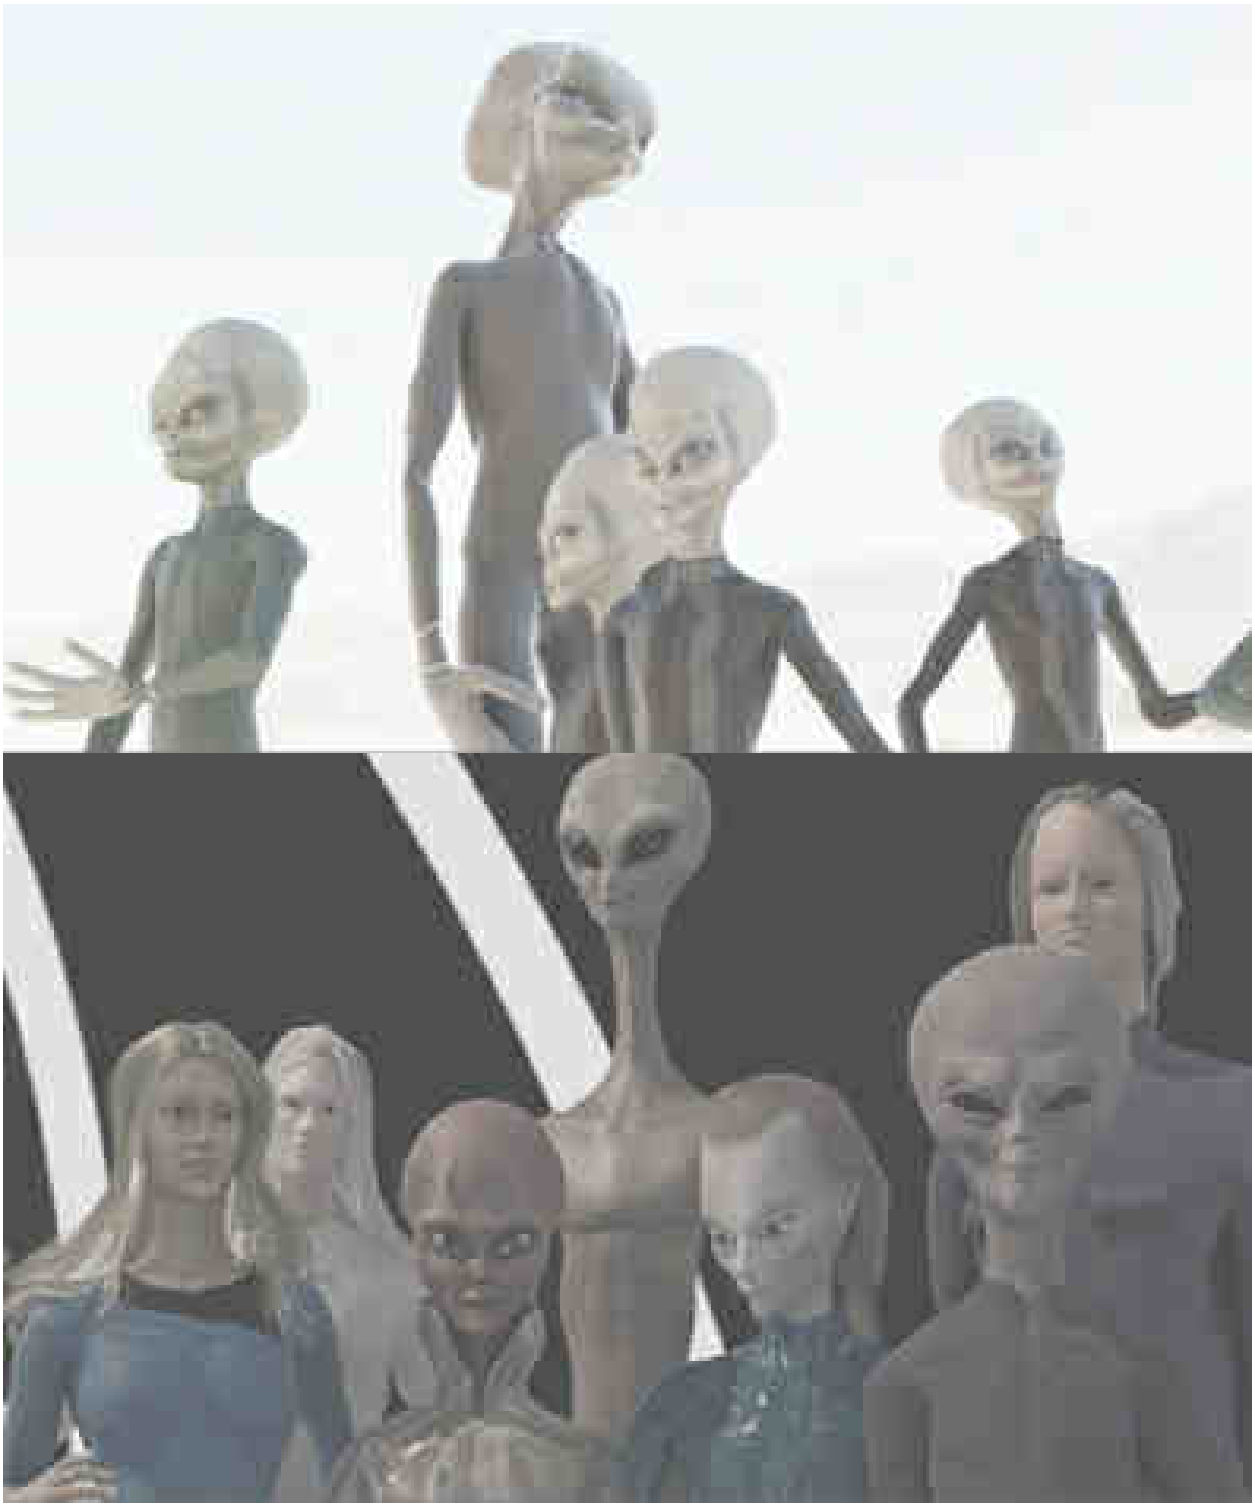
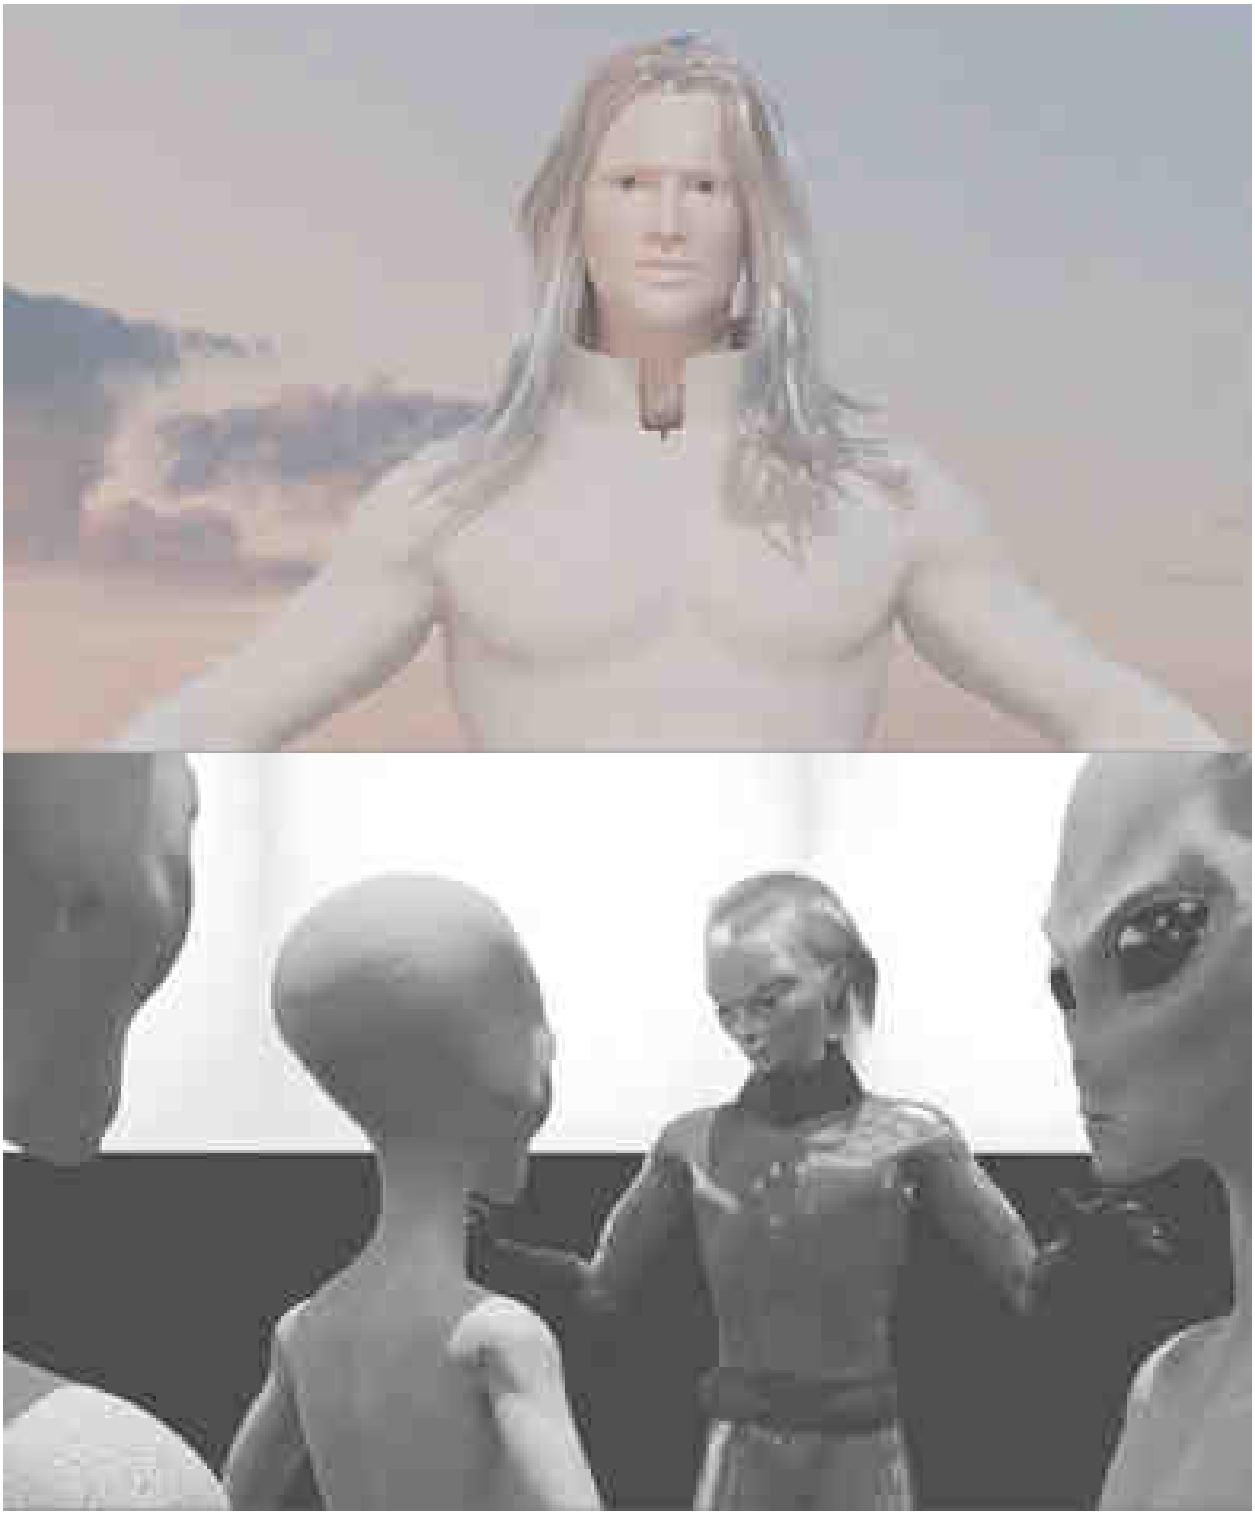
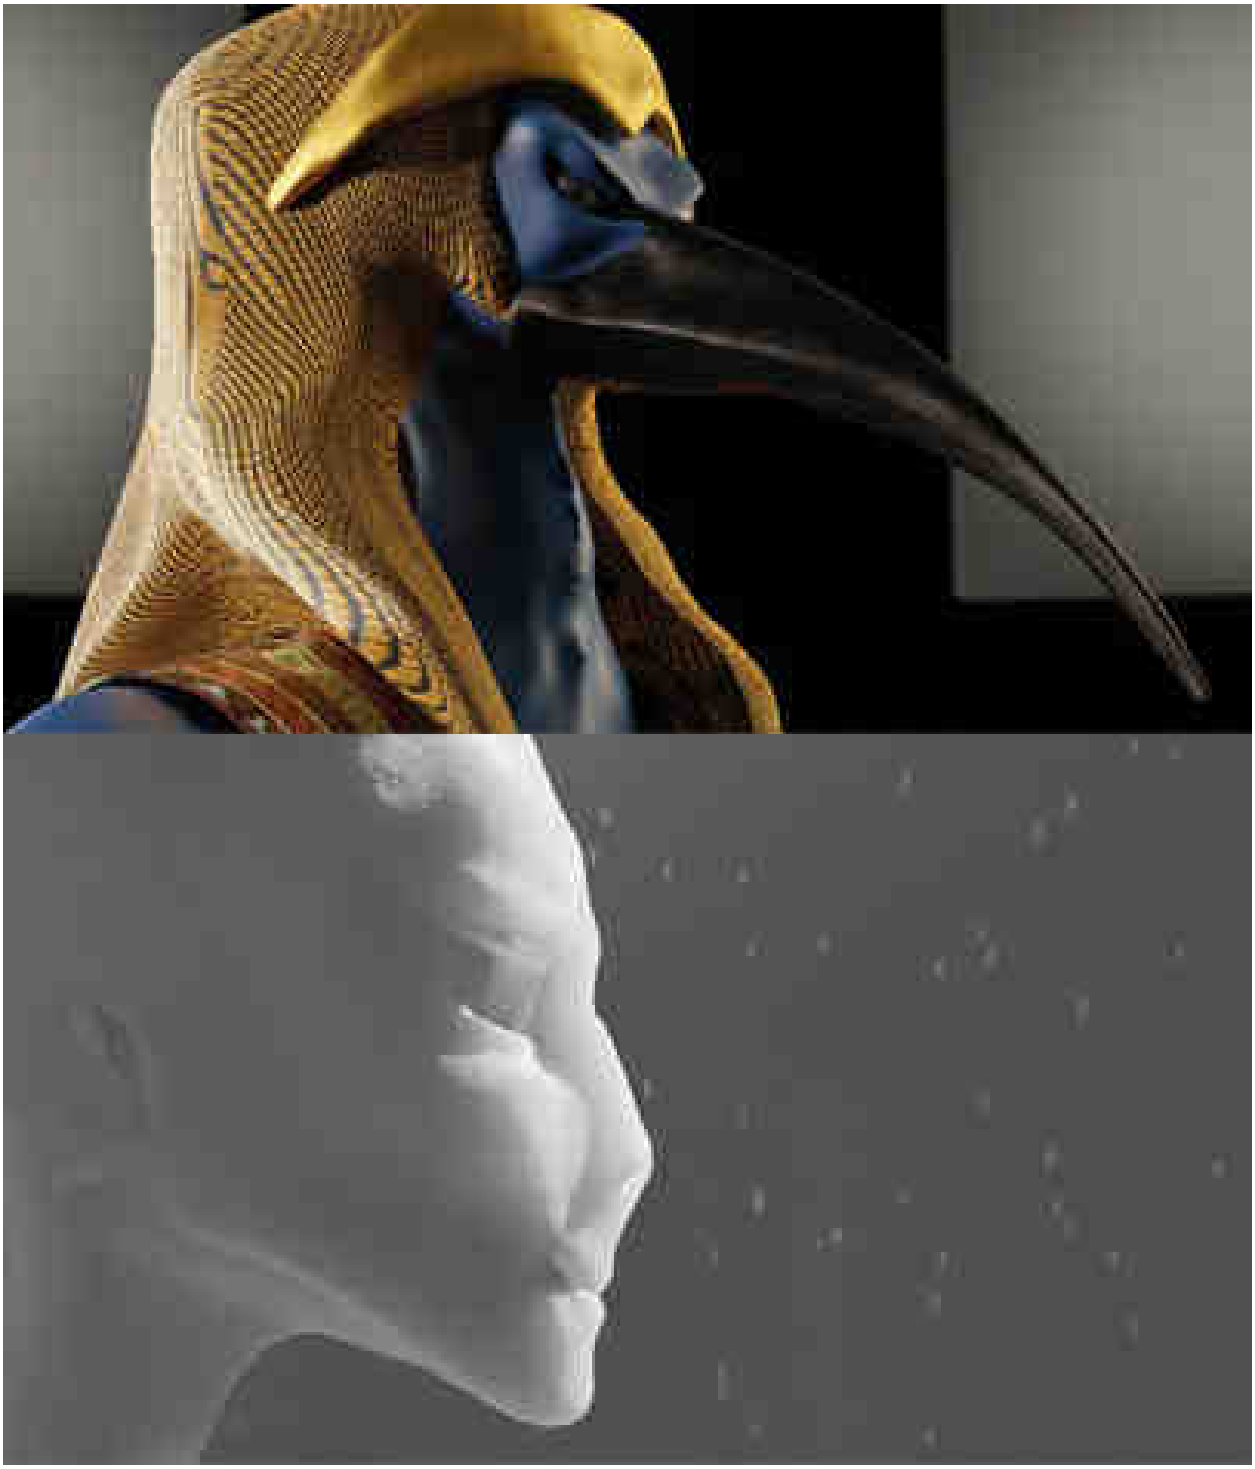
Often covert factions within the military abduct the victims after the E.Ts have had their way. It’s because they want to understand what kind of procedures are done. These abductions are referred to as MILAB Military Abductions.
Some people are abducted only to be taken off planet and used as a commodity or taken into the Dark Fleet or other SSP programs. The reptilians often conduct these.









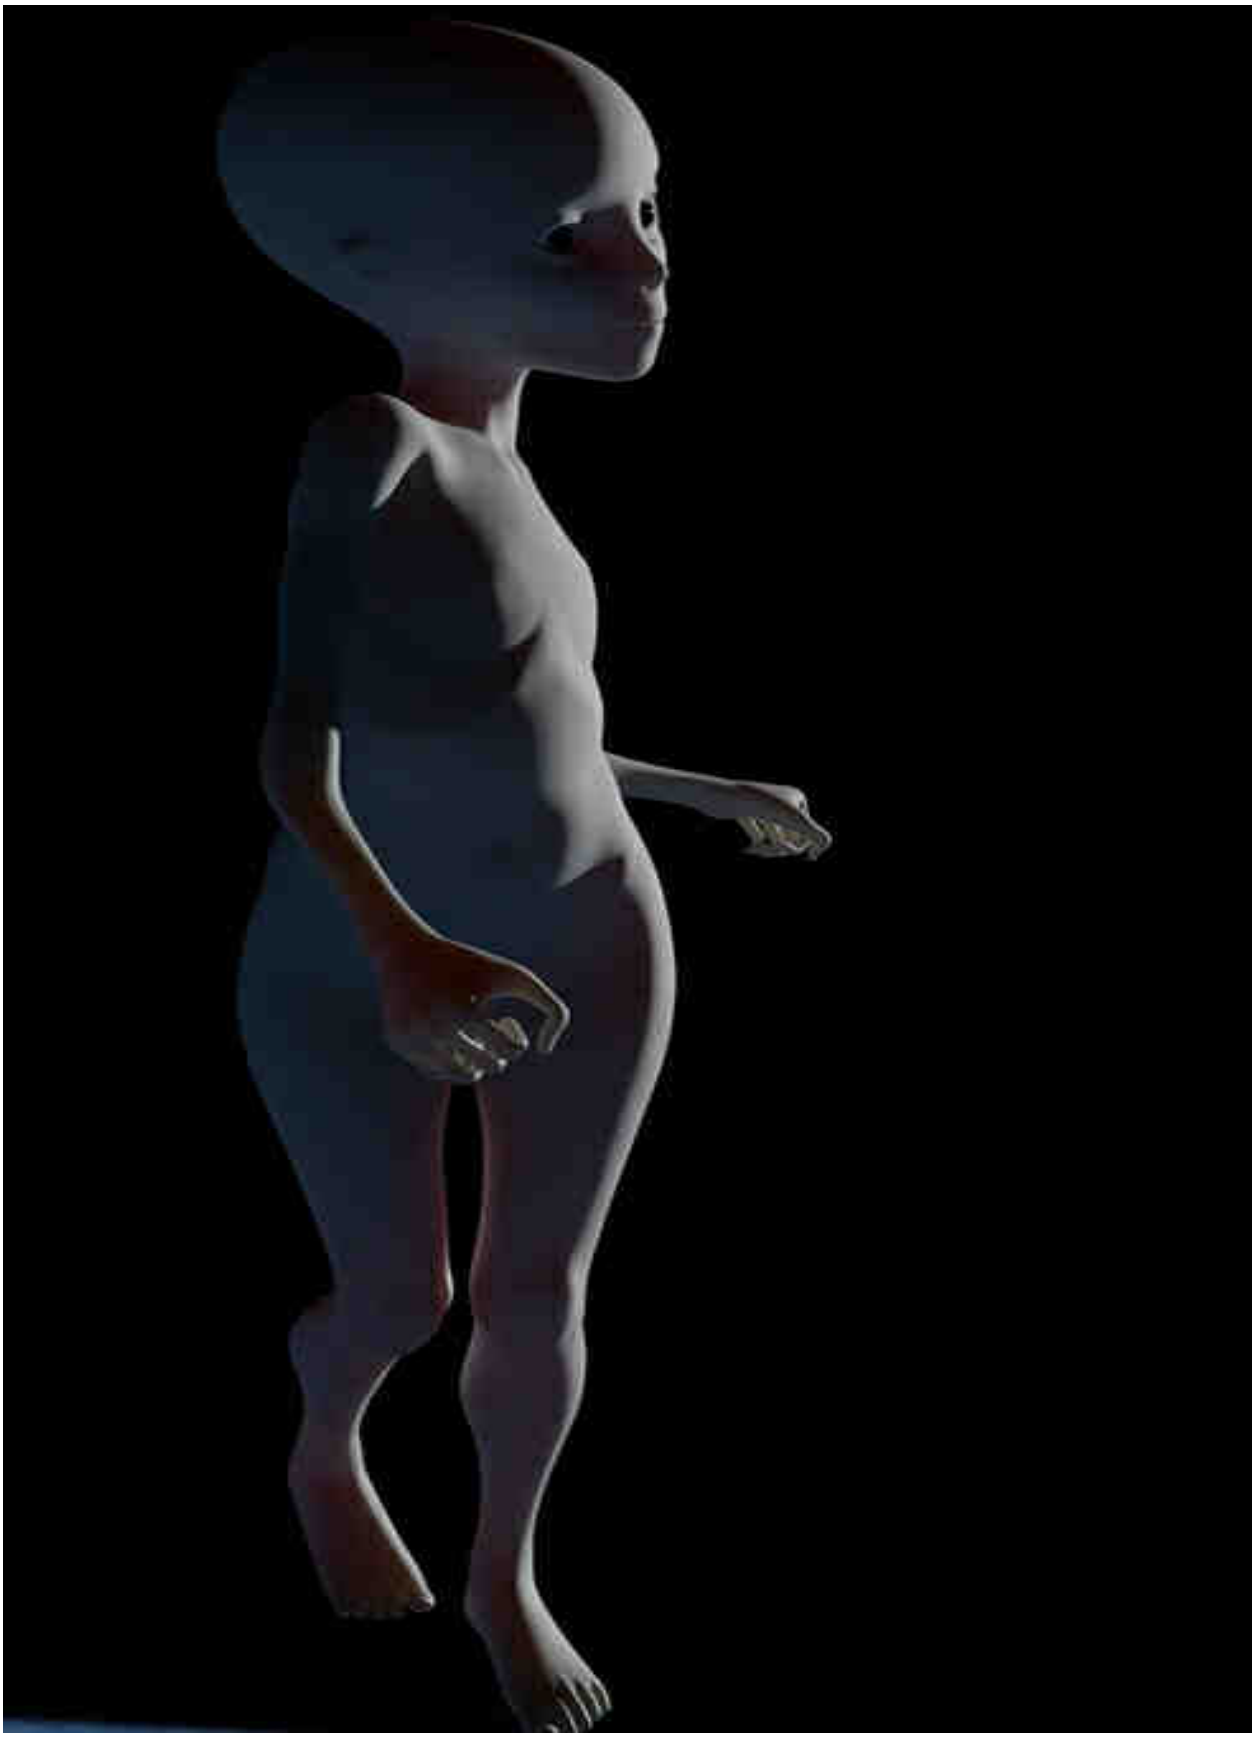
HUMAN POTENTIAL

At one point, The Federation of Worlds had to engage in a compromise with an elite reptilian race to create a race of humans with DNA from 22 different races, including reptilians and races in the Federation of worlds, in order to come to an agreement regarding the dispute of Earth (See: The Grand Experiment). The modern human is Lyra humans (A-hel & Taal) with many DNA attributes to make a fantastic human race capable of highly spiritual integration and optimal 3rd density adaptability. Many races choose to reincarnate in earth's human bodies to experience an extreme range of emotions and help by sharing knowledge. Great leaders like Jesus, Buddha, and Dalai Lama are examples of agreements from a soul level. The E.T s have helped us greatly through subliminal telepathic communication, physical interventions, and guides. Since the Earth human race has been genetically tinkered with, we have 22 different types of genetics. But not all of us have all of the 22, but those who have this combination should have the genetic code that will unlock a great mystery. You can read about this on the last pages. Anyway, our DNA combination makes us utterly unique and with tremendous potential. We are multidimensional beings, and we exist in many planes of existence at the same time. At the same time, we live in a holographic matrix simulation which is part of an experiment, and our consciousness manifests in the matrix. We are all one because we are connected through our pineal gland. Our consciousness comes from a source. Also, this consciousness shift we are experiencing will influence all the races we have DNA from, as we are all symbiotic and nonlocally linked. This ascension is on the horizon and will reach us very soon. This may sound "new age," but this is how the density elevation works.

A SOULS JOURNEY

Souls are created in a similar way like we procreate here on earth, through immense love. On Earth it takes the love of two people to reproduce a human body, and then a soul is inserted. Creating a soul is accomplished by a number of souls who have reached a high level of unconditional love and this soul becomes a part of their community or family. After the soul reaches a certain level, reincarnation is a choice. The heart receives the info directly from the higher mind/soul, but has to go through the filter on the physical restrictive mind. At higher levels life becomes enjoyable and without stress and is nothing like we experience here on earth regardless of whether you are in a physical type of body or a free spirit. We exist as spiritual beings on multiple planes. Our souls are attached to the bodies we reside in. There is a saying: «You can`t take anything with you when you die». But the fact is that everyone leaves Earth with plenty of baggage. All the pain you caused to others and yourself, and all the joy you created for you and others, that all goes with you when you die. Once you are on the other side you have certain options for your next life. The level of consciousness you are determines how many things you can pick from and the quality of those things. Like a selfless Mother Theresa or a return to Earth to help a family member or friend. After you make your choice, you will be placed into circumstances that lead you to those positions in life. Anything you choose is not guaranteed success or happiness. You must make it happen for yourself. Once you are in the shoes of a world leader or a super star you will learn that those positions are not necessarily as easy as you thought. You need to experience why.

All living things are connected through a cosmic grid. You are in charge of your own realities there is not outside, only inside. Law of coherence/attraction. You can only perceive the reality that resonates with your frequency. Therefore, it’s important to use this knowledge as a tool if you desire happiness. You goal is to experience as much as you can and gain as much insight, knowledge, and experience as possible during the current incarnation. You take this with you, and it will keep you climbing the ladder. Eventually you have mastered the physical experience in 3d and you become an ascended master- You may then become a guide or teacher for others below. That is the cycle.



METAPHYSICAL CONCEPTS

DENSITIES

Some beings may exist in other «densities,» which are basically an individual frequency level within a dimension. Basically, the speed that our molecules vibrate. Our brain is not calibrated so that we can perceive higher densities. That means basically that many E.T's can pop in and out of our minimal visual field. Most things happen outside our specter of perception range.

Densities exist as layers of reality, as most of you know, and they all affect each other. It's a frequency band with a specific span indicating a certain density level. It describes the vibratory level of physical matter and nonphysical elements. For instance, our eyes can only register a visual experience if it vibrates under 30 fps. Any higher vibration would not match our frequency level, and we will not see it. Dimensions are not the same thing as densities. We have many realms, physical reality, a dream world, the astral world, and many others. We even have limbo states between those worlds. All matter vibrates; that is just a tiny fraction of what's out there.

Densities are the levels of existence. Reality perception changes on different levels. We exist in 3rd density, and most E.T.s reside on densities above this. It's more a representation of the consciousness we are in. As we evolve, we slowly move up the density level on a subjective and a collective. The five destiny is also physical, but more compatible with higher vibrations, or more positive and service to others mentality and consciousness. It will not be possible for negativity to exist there. Love is dominant.

Many humanoid lifeforms use a so-called density belt to adjust their density compatibility.

1.ST DENSITY: Subatomic particles, atoms, molecules, chemicals, and minerals

2.ND DENSITY: Animals, fish, plants, and trees. Where consciousness first experiences will, passion, drive, pain, or pleasure.

3.RD DENSITY: Earth Humans now + those who possess the seed of self-awareness and free will. Choice of helping others or exploiting them.

4.TH DENSITY: Those who are between spacetime and the higher ethereal realms. Part physical part etheric. Telepathic abilities are common.

5.TH DENSITY: Completely ethereal level of existence. Also, the afterlife. When you die, you transform to the 5th density realm.

6.TH DENSITY: Where individual entities who completed their personal evolution come together as a soul group in a realm outside spacetime.

7.TH DENSITY: is “Unity with the Creator” and the total dissolution of individual existence, through the achievement of infinite consciousness that permeates all life and all existence.

THE SOURCE FIELD

«All that is» is the source field (The Ether)- meaning it works as the storage of all conscious thoughts and creates a framework that enables you to perceive a dynamic reality if you are in proximity. Everything is connected through a cosmic grid/Internet. The source is not limited to Earth but its density. It’s everywhere, and we can connect to it for guidance, information, and future potential. There are positive and negative ideas that build this framework as it is a result of all types of consciousness existing in that reality. We co-create and feed this field with our experiences; all life forms do. Our imagination is getting its ideas from the field; therefore, you can't imagine anything that has NOT happened somewhere in time/space and was stored in the field. Thoughts are connected to this field, and unique ideas may only be created on a higher plan.

HOLOGRAPHIC UNIVERSE

Is our universe a hologram? Is nothing real? Metaphysically this is the case. From source, you can travel to all times and all places since everything and everywhere is only a frequency signature.

Teleportation is only a modification of a variable of the frequency that define the spacetime of your physical experience. It's possible the travel outside the physical reality as everything exists here and now. But this requires the technology and knowledge of how to do this either by mind or technology,- all depending on your level of consciousness. All times and places exist as a static freeze-frame in the universe. Time animation only occurs within your mind when experienced. Some claim that UFOs travel using frequenzy manipulation technology.

It's complicated.

TIMELINE WARS

A war of consciousness is transpiring right now! If you control consciousness, then you can manifest timelines. One faction wants us to remain in the current state, and one wants to see our progress and evolve. There are probable timelines continuously shifting into new potential futures, depending on how our mass consciousness develops.

Timelines are different levels of manifestations using the principle of what we refer to as «The law of attraction». It can be personal, or it can be for a group such as people, planetary, and even a universal. If we focus on the planetary collective timeline, we are able to divert negative timelines with our own consciousness focus. So imagining yourself experiencing the positive end-scenario is what actually gives this timeline traction. The universe will always go where energy flows. And if enough people practice this and envision the same end result, it will create timeline options. We have sublimely been heading toward the «end of the world» timeline until recently when we were able to divert from it into a brand-new positive timeline.

This was hard because we have been exposed to so much mind control through media and technology. The hidden controllers have an extraterrestrial satanic and E.T.-AI component akin to the magic that summons negative energies like the Archons. By being dumbed down, we have been rendered incapable of fighting this duality-promoting agenda and left defenseless. We have, in a sense, become our own prison guards. It was decided by «The Galactic Federation of Worlds» that measures had to be taken to assist humanity in breaking this veil and seeing through the veil. increasingly strong

From the galactic center, there is an increasingly strong

From the galactic center, there is an increasingly strong amount å energy bombarding earth. This energy is forcing us to look at ourselves in a new light, and a group of E.Ts had to buffer the impact and gradually let the energy through. We are now exposed in full. With help from the internet and the incarnation of many star seeds that act as beacons of light, many people around the world are awakening. The mind control structure was not able to sustain its grip on us, and in 2012, we managed to switch over to the «Ascension Timeline.» This timeline entails the downfall of the negative Cabal group and would give rise to a new world where «Service to others» would not survive because they will not be compatible with the frequency. Love vibrates a lot faster than hate. As a result of this mass awakening, the times ahead would be fantastic, culminating in the event that would raise humanity into the four or fifth density. A reality that would not be able to sustain a negative vibration. Special note: I would like to detach all religious aspects from this prophecy. This is also in the interest of the E.T.s as they are not themselves able to ascend unless we join them. And we are still on this timeline even if some claim that there is certain turbulence regarding the Ukraine situation and the Covid 19 lockdowns of the planet. So now it’s extremely important to stabilize our mindset and stay positive. We do not want the other side again to take control. This is a war over timelines and human conscientiousness. They are fighting over the control of the humans. When the negative forces lose, they will not be compatible with the new reality, and this is what they are afraid of. They feed off negative energy, and they will starve to death if there is none.

THE DOMINON OF EARTH

There’s another layer to the true history of Earth that needs to surface. The Earth was never ours alone. We have shared it with other alien species that covertly invaded us thousands of years ago. They are the reptilian Ciakahrr from Alpha Draconis. and are of the adamant opinion that they are the true rulers of this solar system. They have exercised their masterful skills of mind-controlled invasion because they don’t want war with us. We are a commodity resource to them. They prey on us, physically and mentally, and can come and go as they please using portal technology. Their end goal is total enslavement and complete control of the earth’s humans. The truth, however, is that another race was here first, our cousins from the Pleiades. As stated earlier, humans did not evolve on this planet, instead were seeded by the Elohim into the constellation of Lyra many eons ago. Based on the age of the Suns and the planets in our galaxy, it was decided that the human life form was to be created in the Lyran system. The human race lived there for approximately 40 million years, evolving. The orientation of the human race in Lyra was agricultural in nature. We were very plentiful and abundant and lived in peace.

THE HISTORY OF OUR FAITH

LYRAN WARS

One day, three giant spaceships appeared in the sky. One of them approached the planet Bila, and reptilians from Alpha Draconis disembarked. The myth goes that the Alpha Draconians and the Lyrans were afraid of each other. Still, the Draconians were impressed with the planet OMAN KHERA and all its abundance and food and natural resources, so they wanted to control it. The Lyrans, however, wanted to know more about the Draconians before some kind of “relationship” was established. The Draconians mistook the communication as a refusal and destroyed 3 out of 14 planets in the Lyran system. The Lyrans were basically defenseless. And stood no chance against the armada. The Draconian Empire killed over 50 million humans and almost destroyed the four planets. Many humans managed to flee to other star systems in this sector of the galaxy, including Vega, Pleiades, Sirius, and our Sol system. The Dracos then found an uninhabited Earth and decided to terraform it and place it in the Goldie lock zone so it would be easier to colonize it. They put the moon in orbit so it could be used as a stepping stone for a later stage. In addition, the Reptilians had earlier transformed the earth into a place for rich carbon life to thrive. As a food source, they brought with them the dinosaur species.

A human colony from Lyra settled on Mars and the giant waterful planet Maldek between Mars and Jupiter. However, the Dracos decided to destroy Maldek, and in the process, they evaporated the atmosphere of Mars. This resulted in the remains of the water planet Maldek becoming the ice rings of Saturn. The humans of Maldek were mainly killed, but some resilient humans on Mars managed to flee underground.

This travesty had an impact on the Earth as well. Significant amounts of water were dumped from the skies, and when the water resided, two large continents emerged. Lemuria and Atlantis.

The other human colonies/solar systems formed an alliance that we today call The Galactic Federation of worlds. A decision was made to oppose the reptilian dominion over Sol System. So, the Federation sent a fierce race of advanced human warriors from the Pleiades called the Atlans. They were highly evolved spiritually and viewed as a force to be reckoned with. When they arrived on Earth, they quickly took control of the continent of Atlantis (Antarctica), while the reptilians mainly occupied the Lemurian continent. A war erupted immediately, and the Atlans first took out the dinosaurs, the reptilian food source. Using advanced electromagnetic weaponry, they destabilized the continent of Lemuria by provoking earthquakes and floods.

THE GRAND EXPERIMENT

The Galactic Federation, fronted by the Elohim, proceeded to contact the reptilian to form some agreement due to the dispute of Earth. So the decision was made to allow the Draco to join in an endeavor to create a race of humans (Homo Sapiens) that would consist of D.N.A from 22 different species. Including Reptilian and representatives from the Galactic Federation. This multi-hybrid program is referred to as the Grand experiment. The primate race was then genetically modified by many other different races - 22 races (See list).This primate race eventually became Homo Sapien Sapiens. – Earth humans on a physical level. Yes, we used to have 12 strands of DNA. According to Alex Collier, ten strands were taken out by a group from Orion Group in order to control us and hold us back because they were afraid of our divine connection with our souls. The Federation did of course not trust the Reptilians but had no choice but to invite them. After all, they had some claim to this planet as well. The form would be human in appearance. The Alpha Draconians had one demand only: The new brain would be part reptilian and part mammalian with high spiritual potential, compatible with 6th density. The reptilians secretly believed they would be able to control the humans from the 4th density, there original density. At this time the Anunnaki arrived and were far more advanced than the Draco. So again, the Dracos was forced underground or to flee Earth. The Reptilians now changed their tactics to a very covert mind manipulating strategy that would last for centuries. They knew this would be their only chance to eventually reach Earth’s dominion and domination. And they were no stranger to this kind of chess.

As time passed on the Grand Experiment, it was carefully watched from a distance. It was clear that the Dracos had successfully created a backdoor into our mind, and they carefully selected onto which entities they would project their negative influence. Their etheric companions, the Archons- more often took control over influential people in key positions. They via those puppets managed to create famine, wars and other atrocities that would keep the humans in a low vibration state, thus unable to access their higher mind and spiritually evolve as the other races in the Galactic Federation had expected. By creating all this chaos, the reptilian would be able to feed off the loosh- fear energy, and physically devour humans that got lost in wars or famines.

FIRST UNOFFICIAL CONTACT WITH EISENHOWER

The first to contact - in modern times- was made by the Orion Greys, US President Eisenhower, and other trusted officials. But the greys were just the Trojan horse for the second but more physical covert invasion by the Ciakahrr Empire. The Emerthers also came to warn us, but without any luck. The Do-hu and the Zeta also arrived to prepare further for the Draco Ciakahrrs arrival. The Greys claim to want to exchange technology for human DNA. Apparently, they needed this to save their own species. The Galactic Federation of Worlds then sent the Pleiadeans, Ummits, Selosi, Emerther, and Egaroth to warn Eisenhower about NEBUs hidden agenda and that the Galactic Federation themselves would provide them with clean energy, peace, and spiritual growth in exchange for ending the nuclear weapon program. They did convince Eisenhower to refrain from any negotiations with the Orion group, but it was too late. By this time, the powerful MJ12 faction had leapfrogged the President and already committed to an alliance with the Orion Group, the Greys, Kiily Tukort, and the Nagai, on behalf of the Ciakharr Empire, which eventually led to the Draconian and Orwellian influence we see today. This Treaty is called the Greada Treaty.

Orion Group

TURNING OF THE TIDES AND THE FUTURE AHEAD

So this Treaty would change the game entirely because now the Orions had been “invited” and thus not infringed on our free will. It did not take long before they broke their end of the bargain, and we basically had no choice but to go along with whatever demands they had. In late 2020, after the Andromedans had detected a probable timeline where we would be totally at the mercy of Orion’s rulership. This would have been the beginning of the end for this Galaxy.

THE TURNING POINT

So finally, the Galactic Federation had to step in and discard its principles of no intervention. A new protocol was initiated. They would finally be able to assist. First, they would train The Alliance to build and operate their ultra-advanced military and technology. The Galactic Federation had much to offer in wisdom and tactics, and this was something that the Alliance would have to implement to defend and remove the negative energies in our solar system. Eventually, the Federation took it upon itself to physically fight for us to prevent our coming demise and help us adjust our path. They would first clear Jupiter's moons, then Mars of the Draconian and Orion presence. Later they took out the Earth-moon bases that the negatives were operating and disconnected the energy beam that basically kept us in a state of obedience and enslaved us to the control structure. More details about this are in the book: "We will never let you down" by Elena Danaan. They were then able to dismantle the Orion Portals in Antarctica, and take out most of the main Deep underground bases where rouge operations and illegal programs involving E.Ts and the Cabal had been conducted.

The Galactic Federation of worlds contacted people worldwide who had soul agreements and star families to act as beacons of light to help awaken people. We would have a certain window of time to reach this critical mass which again would create full disclosure and revolution on earth. We are at the final stages and about to be liberated with help from the Galactic Federation of Worlds. Everything is happening right here, right now.

THE GREADA TREATY - MJ12 - THE ORION GROUP

THE EXTRA TERRESTRIALS..

...WOULD NOT INTERFERE IN OUR AFFAIRS, AND WE WOULD NOT INTERFERE IN THEIRS.

...WOULD KEEP THEIR PRESENCE HIDDEN FORM THE PEOPLE IF NECESSARY.

...WOULD PROVIDE EXOTIC AND ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY TO THE US MILITARY.

...WOULD BE ALLOWED TO TAKE HUMANS FOR TESTING AND DNA HARVESTING AS LONG AS THEY WERE RETURNED, AND MIND WIPED.

...WOULD SHARE THE RESULT OF THEIR EXPERIMENTATIONS WITH US.

...WOULD BE GRANTED BASES AND ACCOMMODATION ON EARTH WHILE PRESENT.

As of 2022, The Ciakahrr Empire and the Orion Group, along with the Greys Alliance, are now being escorted away from our Solar system. The intervention from the Galactic Federation of Worlds was due to the fact the Greada treaty ended in 2021, and this window of opportunity was open for intervention. If we go down the same path again, it will hold back the growth and spiritual evolvement of all. The grand experiment is now concluded, and it's time to step into our real potential as humans. We are multidimensional beings with the capability of reaching the 4th and even the 5th density where negative energies are less compatible. This would mean a Star Trek-like future (See Dr. Micheal Sallas's Youtube videos) where we would finally become part of the Galactic neighborhood as members of the Galactic Federation of worlds and where the Dracos would not be able to coexist. The negatives have been extracted, but there are still some time bubbles of negative influence, speaking metaphysically, but it will get better. There are also preprogrammed assets that are being activated so they can feed people misinformation about certain things. They did this as a precaution to keep us divided. We must be aware of this, look past the horizon, and trust that we, as a human race of planet Earth will be able to remove our compromised power structure.

The negative forces may very well try to return, and that’s why we need to be alert, but as of now, it’s time for a reset. We are all counting on you to do your best to spread the vibration of love and to contribute to making the world a better place where peaceful contact with benevolent beings can occur without any doubt. Our children’s futures are at stake. We are the ones that must do it! Liberty is found within the heart!

(a) Although the United Nations is an international organization, there is no doubt that it would have no right of tutelage, since its domain does not extend beyond relationships between its members. It would have the right to intervene only if the relationships of a member nation with a celestrial body affected another member nation with an extraterrestrial people is beyond the domain of the United Nations. But if these relationships entailed a conflict with another member nation, the United Nations would have the right to intervene.

(b) If the United Nations were a supra-national organization, it would have competency to deal with all problems related to extraterrestrial peoples. Of course, even though it is merely an international organization, it could have this competence if its member states would be willing to recognize it.

It is difficult to predict what the attitude of international law will be with regard to the occupation by celestrial peoples of certain locations on our planet, but the only thing that can be foreseen is that there will be a profound change in traditional concepts.

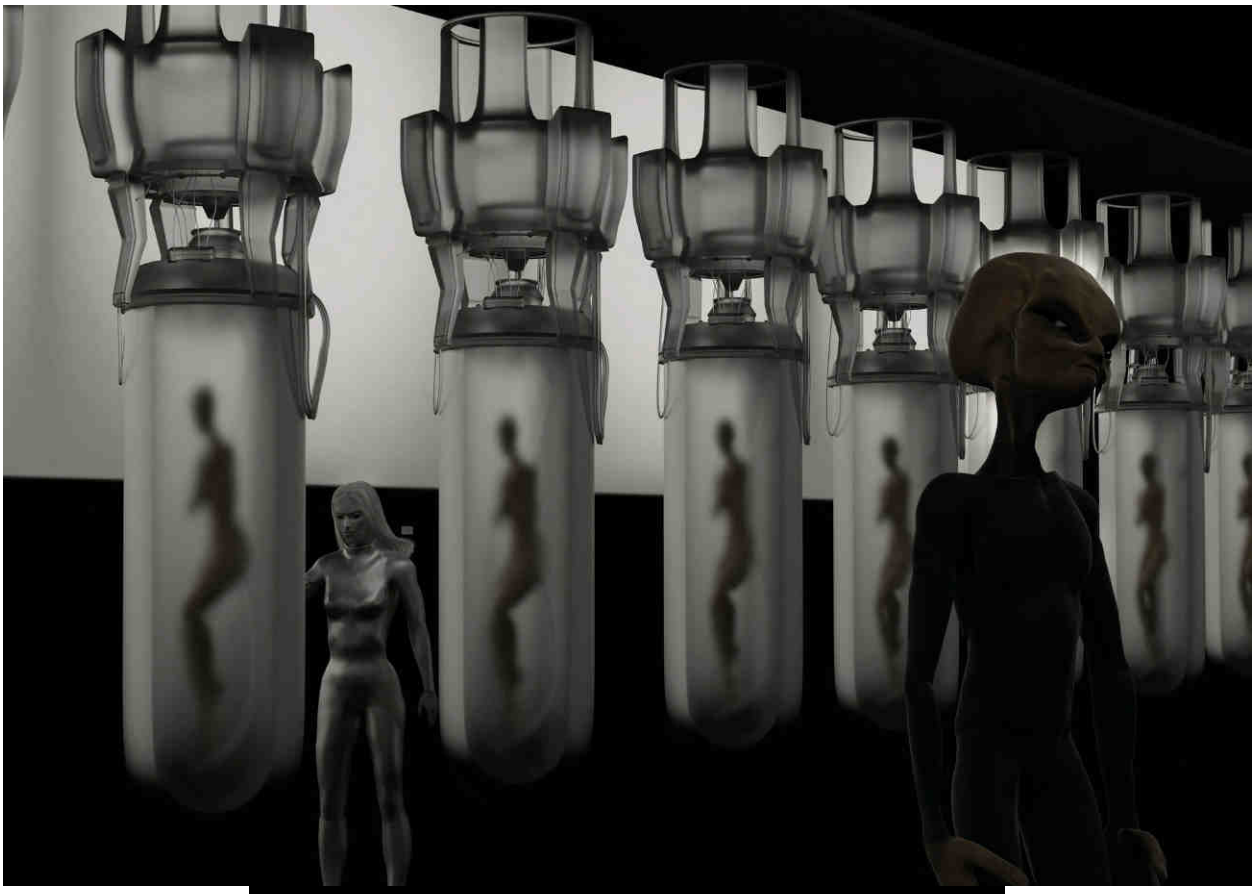
We cannot exclude the possibility that a race of extraterrestrial people more advanced technologically and economically may take upon itself the right to occupy another celestrial body. How, then, would this occupation come about?

1. The idea of exploitation by one celestrial state would be rejected, they may think it would be advisable to grant it to all others capable of reaching another celestrial body. But this would be to maintain a situation of privilege for these states.

2. The division of a celestrail body into zones and the distribution of them among other celestrial states. This would present the problem of distribution. Moreover, other celestrial states would be deprived of the possibility of owning an area, or if they were granted one it would involve complicated operations.

3. Indivisible co-sovereignty, giving each celestrial state the right to make whatever use is most convenient to its interests, independently of the others. This would create a situation of anarchy, as the strongest one would win out in the end.

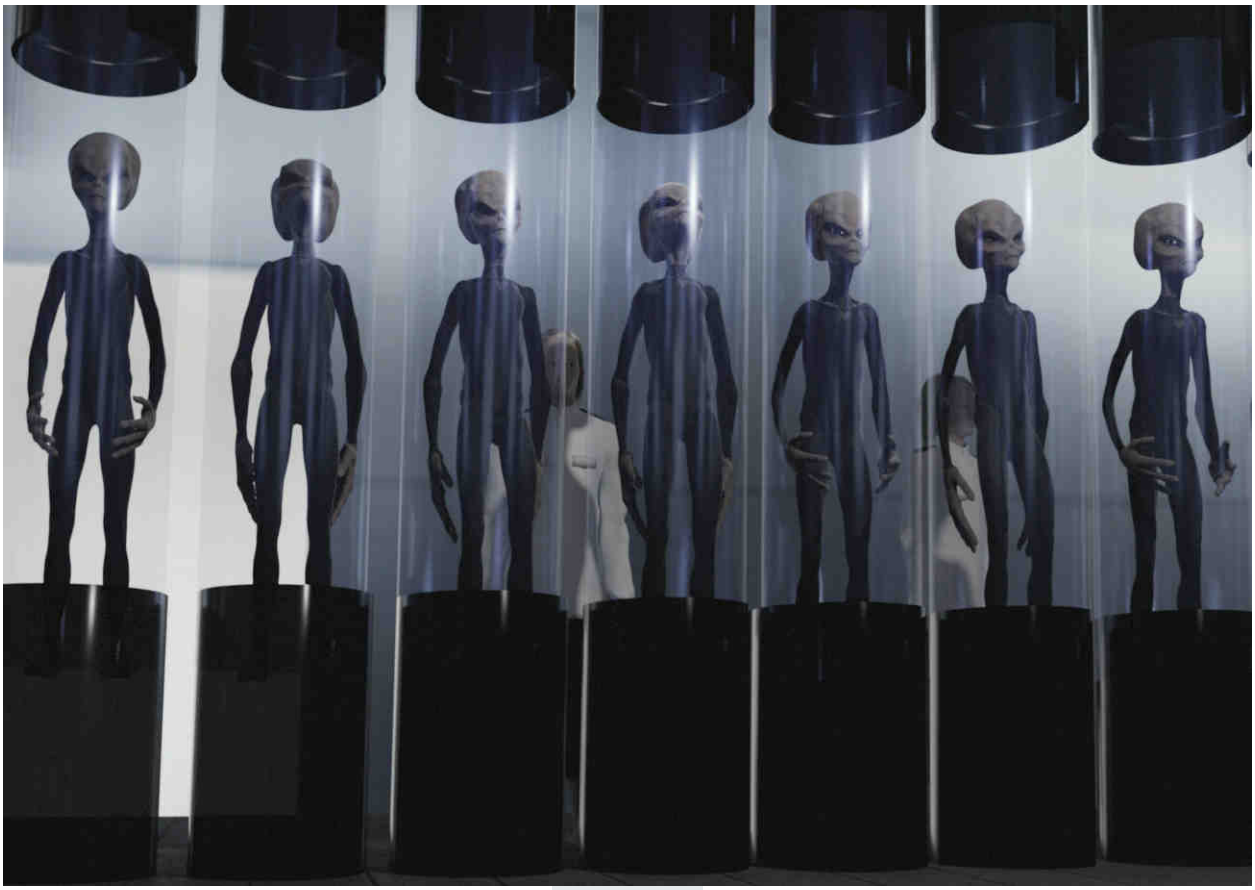
4. A moral entity? The most feasible solution it

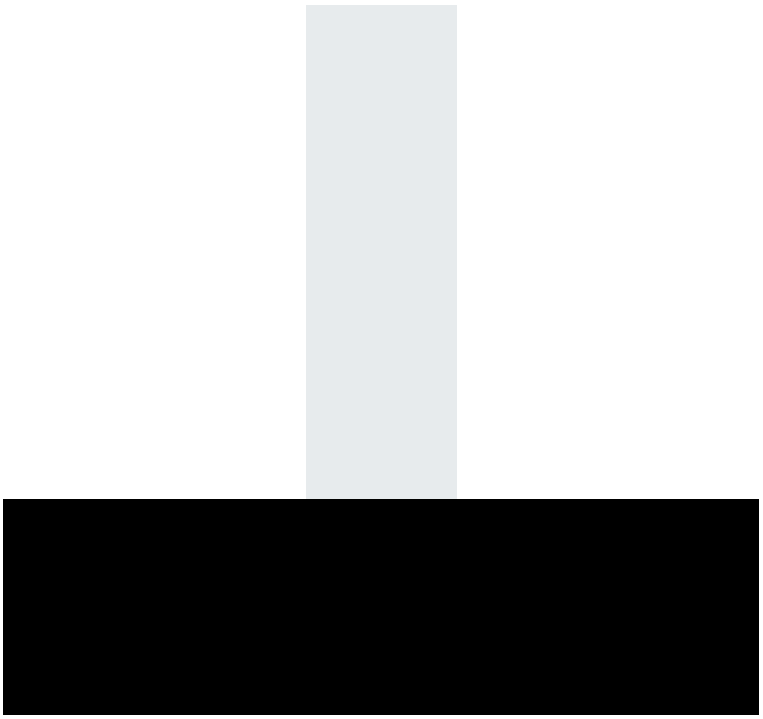


GENETIC PROGRAMS

Underneath the Area 51 facility, some really disturbing things are happening. These floors are completely under the control of the Maytra, Eban and the Kiily Tukort.

The create clones and practice something called soul scalping. They are basically transferring human souls into clones. They are also creating a hybrid race with a Grey soul that is linked to the hive mind of the AI run Red Queen in Orion. These hybrids are to be inserted into our society.





THE 9 EBANS

In late 2021 The Alliance captured 9 Ebans of the Orion Group that were of critical importance to the NEBU. These guys were acting as a mind hubs and with them in isolation, the connection to the Orion hive - Red Queen was disconnected. This was a pivotal point in this war, as the Orions were rendered non-efficient and detached from their mission.

THE TAKEDOWN

The result was that the Earth Alliance with help from the Galactic Federation of Worlds, were able to destroy a lot of the E,T controlled underground bases and escort the E.T out of this Solar system.

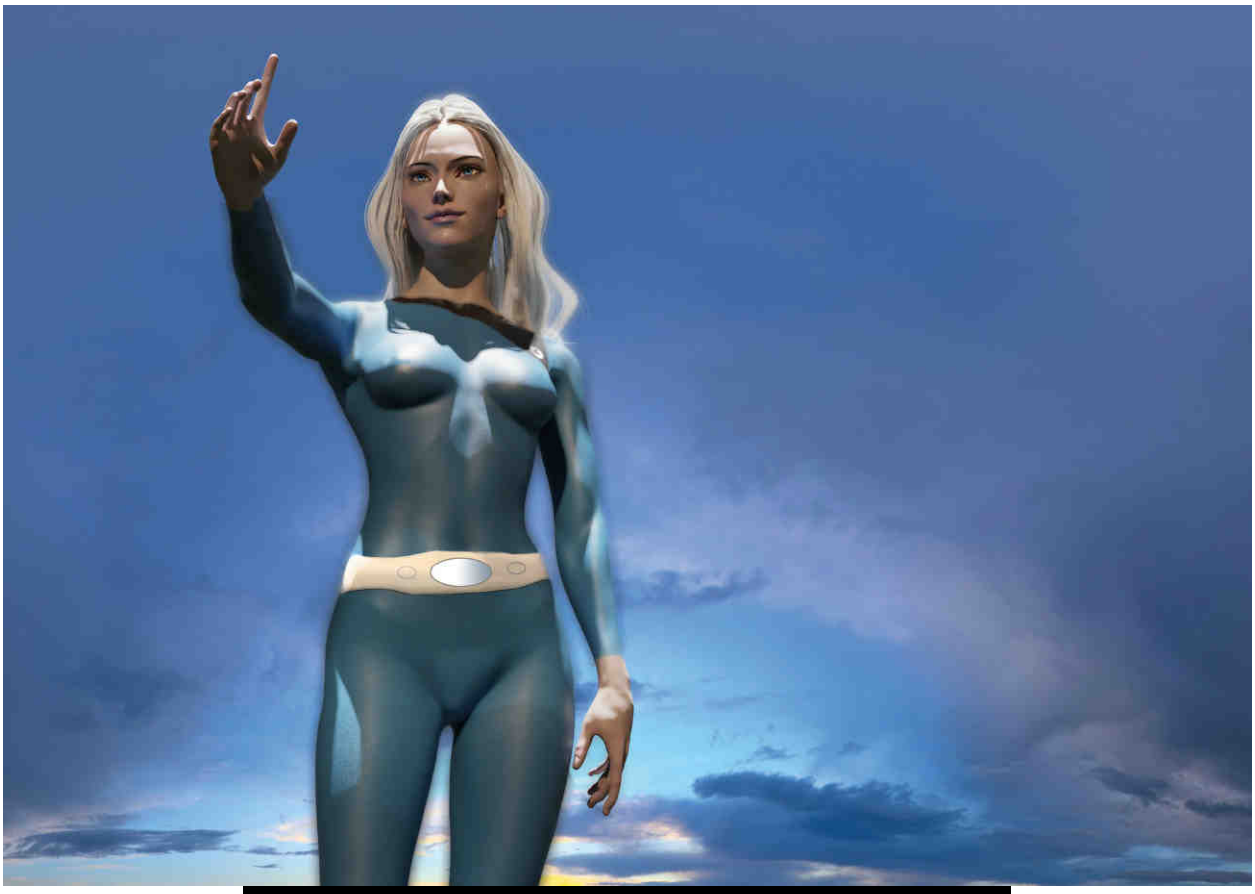
ANDROMEDA COUNCIL

They are also referred to as the Zentaen Council. It’s a high council of 140 types of species that reside in Andromeda. They are very evolved spiritually as well as technologically and what is notable is the way they work in the shadows. They don’t care about glory or spotlight, only the goal. They have saved us using their timeline perception & manipulation technology. What they recently did was investigate the future and identify a point 350 years in the future (in 5d) where the structures of the Orions would basically take over this sector of the galaxy run it by tyrannic means. They used their technology to map out the path the led to this devastation point, and its origin was here on earth at this time! According to Alex Collier, they presented this to the Galactic Federation and Council of 5. They agreed that measures had to be taken before the dark underground presence on earth got too powerful.



PLEIADIAN ASSISTANCE

The Pleiadians is in charge of many operations relating to the liberation of Earth. They have met with Earth officials many times, but not always being successful in their attempt to advice our leadership. We now know this is because of the continueous massive infiltartion that has been in the works sinse the early 1940´s by the Orion Group and Draconian presence.

SOURCES

I want to thank those who have dared to speak out on this topic and those who have helped us connect the dots and keep this subject floating in times of ridicule, diversion, threats, and censorship. We owe them a great deal of gratitude. Thanks to those who have sacrificed their lives in the quest for truth. In recent years there has been a wave of new people who have shed new light and revealed excellent new intel. It was a breath of fresh air. But we know the diversity tactics from the Cabal have taken their toll on them. I am full of admiration for those in the line of fire that has given up their lives to bring us intel. Thank you so much to everyone who and written or created podcasts on the topic of ets. I have learned so much, which is the basis for this book. However, lately, there has been severe infiltration by negative entities and factions taking place in the alternative community. This causes doubt about the legitimacy of some of the content most of us believe to be authentic. All we can do is use discernment and connect to your resonance ability.

I have many sources of information, but I will not hide that I got this inspiration from Elena Danaan's book alien races – a gift from the stars. Thank you, Elena, for your insights. I will also thank Dr. Michael E. Salla and Alex collier, as I greatly respect both because of their tireless effort to bring us pieces of this grand puzzle.

I always try to crosscheck where possible. Below I have listed most of my sources, which are a part of the puzzle. I recommend you check them out.
